CHIEF JUSTICE REFUSES PACKERS IMMEDIATE WRIT

Mr. White Says Issue is Too Vital to Be Considered by One Man; Whole Bench Will Consider It.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Chief Justice White today refused to grant a stay in the trial of the Chicago beef packers, but referred the attorneys making the application to the entire bench with the statement that the matter was of too much importance fon him to pass on individually. Attorney Miller announced that such an application to the entire court would be made at the first sitting, December 4.

Attorneys for the packers indicated that efforts will be made to have Judge Carpenter of the United States district court at Chicago, before whom the indicted packers have been summoned for trial on Monday, to grant a further postponement until the supreme court passes on the application for a stay.

Begin the Battle.

John S. Miller and Levy Mayer of counsel for the indicted beef packers in Chicago arrived in Washington today to begin the fight in the United States supreme court for a stay of the trial of the packers on charges of having criminally violated the Sherman anti-trust law. Their first move was to go to the clerk's office of the supreme court to docket the appeal from the order of Judge Kohlsaat of the United States circuit court, Chicago, denying the release of the packers on habeas corpus proceedings.

Chief Justice is Seen.

The application for the stay in the trial was presented to Chief Justice White at his residence by Attorneys John S. Miller and Levy Mayer. The ground for the application was gone over with some detail before the chief justice announced his decision to refer the matter to the full court.

The application before the court on December 4 will be for a "supersedeas," the technical term for a stay of proceedings in the lower court. The attorneys at once went to the clerk's office for the court and docketed the record of the habeas corpus proceedings before the United States circuit court in Chicago.

In that proceeding they had made an unsuccessful attempt to procure the lease of the packers from custody on the ground that the Sherman anti-trust law as a criminal measure, was unconstitutional. The question was put to the attorneys as to what effect today's action would have on the trial before Judge Carpenter. The reply was that only Judge Carpenter could answer that. The attorneys then indicated that they would make application to the judge for a stay until the supreme court passed on the application for the "supersedeas." Attorneys Miller and Mayer returned to Chicago this afternoon.

At the clerk's office an appointment was made by Mr. Miller to lay the matter before Chief Justice White at his residence at once. It was decided to take the entire record of the habeas corpus proceedings to the chief justice and to delay the formal docketing of the case until after the application for delay in trial had been presented. The intention of counsel for the packers was to notify Attorney General Wickersham of the intended application to the chief justice. When it was learned, however, that the practice did not call for this at the first application for such a stay, it was decided to go before the chief justice without further ceremony.

While Mr. Miller was communicating with the chief justice, Mr. Mayer was drawing up the order staying the proceedings which it was hoped the chief justice would sign.

EXPECT TRIAL MONDAY.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—United States District Attorney James H. Wilkerson, when informed of Chief Justice White's decision, said:

"I cannot comment on the matter as I am not fully informed of the details in relation to the order. However, I am inclined to think the trial of the packers in Judge Carpenter's court will go ahead on Monday."

Counsel for the government in the trial of the nine Chicago packers indicted under the criminal provision of the Sherman anti-trust act, expected today to complete final details for the beginning of the case next Monday, despite the appeal to the United States supreme court taken by the defendants.

District Attorney James H. Wilkerson and his assistants declined to say what they thought would be the outcome of the proceedings at Washington, but their actions indicated they were confident of going to trial at the time set by Judge George A. Carpenter in the United States district court.

HEARD BEULAH WAS ON HAND

Beattie's Former Friend Has Not Appeared to Be at Funeral.

SLAYER'S LAST DAY

Richmond, Va., Nov. 23.—A report that Beulah Binford, the 17 year old girl, for love of whom Henry Clay Beattie, jr., is alleged to have killed his wife, had arrived here today, caused a distinct sensation. The police at once denied the story, but made a close search for the girl and their vigilance did not relax until word came from New York that the girl was still there and would make no attempt to come to Richmond.

Condemned Man Has Restless Night.

Young Beattie awakened at the usual time this morning on what, by law, was the last day of his life. Tomorrow, shortly after daybreak, he will surrender himself in the death chair in expiation of the murder of his young wife. He slept well, but had tossed restlessly, as though bad dreams had been his companions throughout the long night. There were no signs of a breakdown this morning, the prisoner dressing with the same fastidious care that he has taken ever since he entered the state penitentiary and the death cell.

Rev. John J. Fix put in an appearance early and probably will remain with Beattie during the day. The elder Beattie, Douglas Beattie, brother of the convicted man, and the attorneys who defended him in the trial that ended in his conviction for murder, joined the minister soon afterward. Neither Beattie's attorneys nor his relatives believe he will confess before his life is taken.

Believe He Will Confess.

His spiritual advisers are of another opinion. They entertain the hope, amounting almost to a conviction, that he will do so.

"If he is guilty, I feel reasonably certain he will acknowledge all," said Rev. Dr. Fix. "To go to his death with a lie on his lips would be sacrilege and Beattie is at peace with his Maker."

The fact remains, however, that through all the ordeal attending his trial and conviction, young Beattie has sought in every way to spare his aged father as much as possible. The elder Beattie is said still to believe in the innocence of his son. It is a question whether the condemned man does not consider that he owes it to his father, to whom he has brought so much pain and so much disgrace, to go to his death with sealed lips. It is doubted by many that new found religion will outweigh the prisoner's sense of that consideration he believes is due his father and prompt a confession.

STATE WITNESS HELPS DEFENSE

Surprising Turn Taken in Patterson Murder Case in Denver.

Denver, Col., Nov. 23.—Dr. W. G. Mudd, called today as a state witness in the trial of Gertrude Gibson Patterson for the alleged murder of her husband, Charles A. Patterson, proved to have testimony of value to the defense. Attorney Benson, of the prosecution, declared the physician's testimony came as a surprise to him. Dr. Mudd rode in the ambulance with Mrs. Patterson when she was taken to jail after the shooting. He aided the claim of the defendant that Patterson struck her by stating that there was a bluish looking spot on Mrs. Patterson's cheek which the prisoner indicated to him, in the course of their ride to the lock-up, as the place where her husband had struck her.

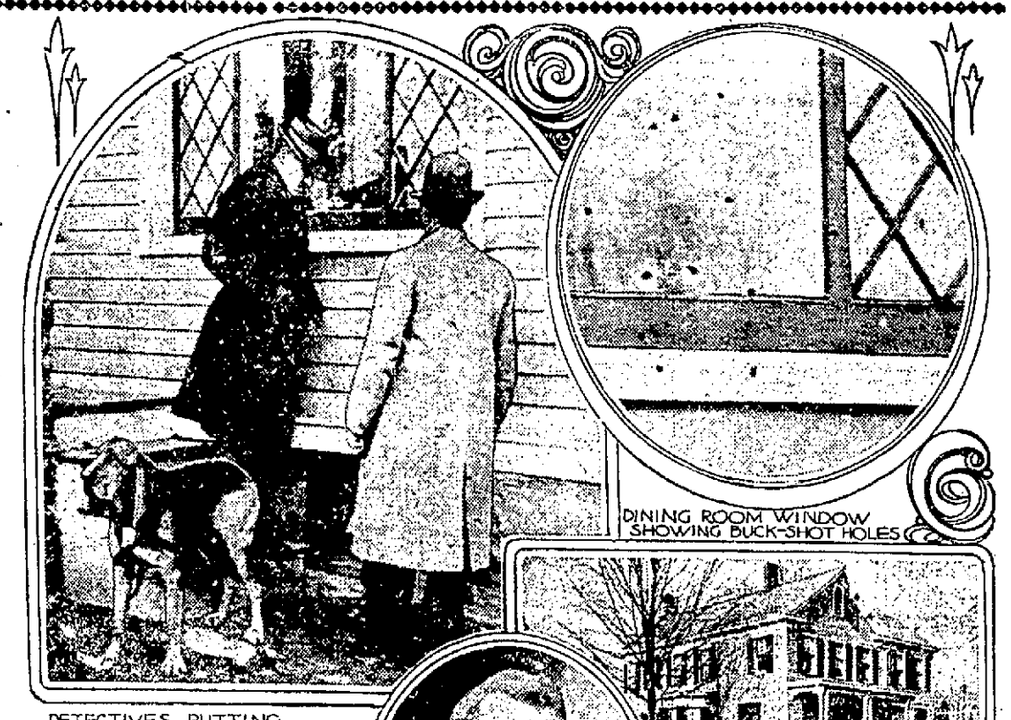
Witness testified further that Mrs. Paterson at first told him she did not know who fired the shot which killed her husband, but later she said that, after her husband had knocked her down he handed her the pistol, saying "now, damn you, kill yourself."

The crowd which flocked to the court house today was the largest of the trial and the fight for seats resulted in much disorder and one woman was injured but not seriously. Dr. Stephen D. Parsons' testimony concerned itself with a newspaper clipping which he said he found near Patterson's body after the shooting and which he said he turned over to Police Sergeant McIntyre. The latter, who followed Dr. Parsons on the stand, confirmed the doctor's statement, but he was presented to the defense for cross examination without the clipping being read to the jury. The item is said to relate to the alienation suit which it is said Patterson purposed filing against a Chicago milionaire.

LUXURIOUS COFFIN FOR AN ARISTOCRATIC ANGORA.

Logansport, Ind., Nov. 23.—The $1,000 Angora cat belonging to Mrs. J. F. Getty, High street, which was killed by a bull dog, was buried today in a coffin which cost $50. The funeral was to have taken place several days ago, but was delayed because the special coffin had not arrived. The coffin was lined with silk, had silver plated handles and the silver name plate bore the cat's name. The burial was in the back yard of the Getty homestead.

MYSTERY IN ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF WEALTHY MERCHANT



DETECTIVES PUTTING BLOODHOUND ON TRAIL

DINING ROOM WINDOW SHOWING BUCK-SHOT HOLES

HOME OF MONROE F. ELLIS

MONROE F. ELLIS

Considerable mystery is attached to the attempted assassination of Monroe F. Ellis, a wealthy lumber merchant and bank receiver, while he sat at dinner with his family in his handsome home at Basking Ridge, N. J. Detectives working on the case are completely baffled by the mystery and believe it will remain unsolved unless Mr. Ellis recovers. The shots were fired through the dining room window. A posse of men and bloodhounds are searching the woods for the would-be murderer.

The police regard as astonishing the fact that a man armed with a shotgun could approach Mr. Ellis' home within fifty feet, with unerring aim single him out as a target from among the members of his family, fire the shot and then disappear. The echo of the shot had scarcely died away when at least four persons were on their porches near by, peering all around and saw no human being.

AMERICAN PRELATES ARE GIVEN WELCOME TO ROME

Cardinals-Designate Farley and Falconio Arrive in Eternal City Where They Will Receive Red Hats.

Rome, Nov. 23.—Cardinals Designate John M. Farley and Diomede Falconio arrived here this morning at 8:15 o'clock. A large crowd of ecclesiastics had assembled at the station before dawn, but the train containing the two American archbishops was an hour and a quarter late. Both the prelates looked well nothwithstanding the fatigue of their long journey.

All the ecclesiasts present knelt and kissed the rings of the new cardinals-designate, while many travelers and other persons about the station joined in emphasizing the cordiality of the reception. A characteristic note was given to the occasion by some of the clerical suite carrying rolled American flags bound with white and yellow ribbons, the papal colors.

The warmest congratulations and respectful greetings were then presented to the two cardinals-designate by Mgr. Thomas F. Kennedy, rector of the American college in Rome; Mgr. Dennis O'Connelly, auxiliary bishop of San Francisco; Dr. Bernard J. Mahoney, of Albany, spiritual director of the American college; Father Dolan, rector of the English speaking church of San Silvestre here; Father Hilary Jordan, of St. Paul, and other American clergymen.

The superior procurator-general of the Franciscan monks took Cardinal Designate Falconio to the monastery of St. Anthony; while Cardinal Designate Farley, accompanied by Mgr. Thomas F. Kennedy and Mgr. Dennis O'Connell, with Dr. Bernard Mahoney drove to the hotel Bristol, followed by the suite.

During the usual papal audience this morning Cardinal Merry del Val communicated to the pope the arrival of the two cardinals-designate and informed him of the cordial reception that had been accorded to them everywhere. The pope was pleased and said he was looking forward to receiving them soon.

The secret consistory will be held on Monday next and the public consistory will follow on Thursday. At the secret consistory only the pope and the cardinals resident in Rome are present. At the public consistory three days later, the ceremony is much more imposing, the new cardinals receiving their red hats from the pope.

LABOR LEADERS AGAIN TO BE TRIED FOR CONTEMPT

Justice Wright Orders Gompers, Mitchell and Morrissey Into His Court to Show Cause Why Not.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, the labor leaders, must again stand trial in the supreme court of the District of Columbia on charges of contempt arising out of the Bucks stove and range case. Justice Wright today handed down a decision overruling the motion of the labor leaders for a dismissal of the proceedings under the statute of limitations. The court held that contempt of court is not classed as criminal and consequently not subject to the bar of the statute of limitations.

The supreme court of the United States recently dismissed the original cases against Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, but gave the lower court the right to renew the proceedings. At this time the controversy between the stove company and the American Federation of labor had been settled. Notwithstanding this, Justice Wright took the ground that the dignity of the district supreme court's orders had been violated and again cited the labor leaders to appear and defend themselves.

Justice Wright declined to grant the request of Gompers and his associates that the testimony be taken in open court. He gave the respondents three days in which to agree with the committee of prosecutors upon the appointment of a commissioner to hear the evidence.

GOMPERS ASSAILS WRIGHT.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 23.—"Insofar as the people of this organization are concerned, Justice Wright is mentally incompetent to give a fair and impartial trial of the contempt proceedings against us." President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, in convention here, made this declaration today when announcement was made on the convention floor that Justice Wright had today handed down a decision overruling the motion of Mr. Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison for a dismissal of the contempt proceedings arising out of the Buck Stove and Range case under the statute of limitations. News of the court's decision reached the convention while the committee on laws and adjustment was making a report on the charges against the labor leaders in

JURY IN TARRING CASE GOES OUT

No Effort of Counsel for Defense to Justify the Outrage.

SEE EARLY VERDICT

Lincoln Center, Kas., Nov. 23.—Before night the three defendants in the Shady Bend "tar party" case may know their fates.

Only two more closing arguments were scheduled at the opening of today's session.

At the opening of court Col. Dave Ritchie, of Salina, Kas., spoke in behalf of the defendants. He was followed by S. N. Hawkes, assistant attorney-general of Kansas for the state.

The jury was instructed last night so they were ready to begin deliberations when the arguments closed. No one connected with the state is more certain that the men will be convicted than is Mary Chamberlain.

Following the close of Attorney McCurdy's address last night, A. N. Simms, one of the defendants, embraced the attorney and expressed a favorable opinion of the outlook.

Speculation as to Penalty.

Now that the cases of the three defendants, Sherill Clark, A. N. Simms and John Schmidt are virtually ended, speculation is rife regarding what sentence will be passed on Everett G. Clark, Ray Fitzwater and Watson Scranton, who pleaded guilty to assault and battery in connection with the "tarring" on November 16. Sentence was deferred on them until after the present trial.

Richie followed the lead of his colleague, Attorney McCurdy, who spoke last night by making a bitter attack on the "dirty-dozen" of Beverly in general, and Chester Anderson in particular. "It was with this crowd that the plan had its inception," he said. "These defendants did not originate it or take any part in the execution of it."

Regarding the meeting at the mill, the speaker said it could not be taken as proof that the defendants intended to take part in the assault.

The case went to the jury after a two and a half hour session of court.

No Attempt to Justify.

No attempt was made by any of the attorneys for the defense to defend the crime. Every effort was directed to-

MIGHT GIVE OLD HOME TO CITY FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES

Suggestion by Judge Alden as Attorney for Miss Hamilton in Condemnation Proceedings.

That Miss Maragret V. Hamilton has had in mind for some years a desire that the old homestead of her father, Hon. Allen Hamilton, should at her death revert to the city to be perpetuated for public purposes has developed in the objections filed to the condemnation proceedings instituted by the city school board to secure the property for school purposes.

The suggestion is given by Judge S. R. Alden, as attorney for Miss Hamilton, that the later might be willing to sell to the school city the 80 to 100 feet of the property it might need for the erection of an addition to the present high school building, and bequeath to the city the remainder of the 200 feet tract, including the old homestead, with the provision that it be kept perpetually open to the public as a museum, art gallery or similar institution, and that the grounds be open as a public park or breathing spot for a section of the city which up to this time has nothing of that sort within a long distance.

The property lies directly west of the present high school building and extends to Clinton street. It was the home of one of the most prominent of Fort Wayne's early financiers, and the fine old place was maintained intact as a solid square until a few years ago, when the site of the present high school building was sold to the school city.

Judge Alden said today that while Miss Hamilton had not made a definite offer of this character to the city, he was quite certain she would be glad to

SIXTY DIE WHEN TRAIN GOES THROUGH BRIDGE INTO FLOOD

Horrible Railway Catastrophe Takes Place in France as Result of Torrential Rains.

Saumur, France, Nov. 23.—Sixty passengers, it is estimated, lost their lives through the plunging of a train into the river Thouet this morning, owing to the breakdown of a railroad bridge on the State railway at Montreuil-Bellay, in the department of Marne-et-Loire.

The train, which had started from Angers, was traveling to Poitiers. It contained about 100 passengers. While it was crossing the bridge over the Thouet the structure, which had been greatly weakened by recent floods, broke down, crashing with the whole of the cars into the swollen stream. Many of the passengers who succeeded in getting out of the cars through the windows, tried to save themselves by clinging desperately to the tops of trees, which showed above the surface of the water. In most cases, however, they were quickly washed away by the rushing current.

Most of the boats in the locality had been carried off by the inundations so that it was impossible for the people of the neighborhood to rescue many.

Ten corpses have been recovered at various points of the river.

Three of the cars were submerged, but the roof of a fourth car is still visible above the surface. Eleven persons, including some children, are still clinging to this and during the afternoon thousands of people lined the bank watching them, but impotent to render aid.

Several small boats made ineffectual attempts at rescue, but the crews run perilous risks and the boats were nearly swamped on several occasions. Efforts at salvage still continue.

Late this afternoon a total of twenty bodies had been taken from the river. As the exact number of passengers in the submerged cars was unknown it was impossible officially to estimate the total number of dead.

Soldiers, engineers and firemen have been rushed to the scene to aid in the rescue work. A merchant who tried to row out to the wreck in an effort to save a child was drowned.

CONSTITUTION MAY CUT FIGURE

HOW IT WOULD WORK

Los Angeles, Nov. 23.—With frequent wrangles in the examinations of jurors to try James B. McNamara for the fatalities resulting from the Times explosion and the noting of exceptions by the defense to many rulings of the court, discussion turned today among lawyers in the court room to the possible effect on the case of the new constitutional amendment adopted last month regarding the granting of new trials. The defense has taken the position that it will ignore the new amendment and set itself as vigorously in the record for an appeal in case of conviction as if the new act had not existed.

It became known today that members of the state bar association, at their meeting at Sacramento a week ago, discussed informally the new amendment and doubt existed as to its future interpretation. Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the defense, learning of this, also gave his views today on the amendment and although he is not worried about the phraseology of the amendment, he admitted that it might cause some trouble in case of conviction of McNamara and an application thereupon for a new trial.

The amendment though, when passed, attracted little general attention. It is said to be the first of its kind embodied in a state constitution in this country.

The Amendment.

It reads:

"No judgment shall be set aside or a new trial granted in any criminal case on the ground of misdirection of the jury or the improper admission or rejection of evidence or for error as to any matter of pleading or procedure unless, after an examination of the entire cause, including the evidence, the court shall be of the opinion that the error complained of has resulted in a miscarriage of justice."

This amendment, from the minds of prominent lawyers, unequivocally sweeps out of use the practice of obtaining a new trial where irrelevant er-

PASSENGERS ARE SAFELY REMOVED

No Casualties in Mishap to Steamer Grounded on Island.

WILL GO TO NASHUA

New York, Nov. 23.—All the passengers of the steamship Prinz Joachim ashore on Atwood Key, a remote island of the Bahamas, have been taken aboard the Ward line steamer Seguranca and are now on their way to Nassau. This news reached the Ward line office here today in a wireless message from the Seguranca which apparently had been relayed by the steamer Vigilincia. The message read:

"Seguranca has all passengers from the Joachim. Bring to Nassau. Will arrive 2 m—. Will keep you informed."

Apparently the time when the passengers are expected to reach Nassau had been lost from the message but at the Ward line office it was said that the Seguranca probably would reach Nassau between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon.

News from the stranded steamship was lacking early today, the wireless operators in this city being unable to get into communication with the Joachim because of interfence of other aerial messages. Officials of the Hamburg-American line said that the 87 passengers among whom are William J. Bryan, his wife and grandchild, were in no danger as the steamer Seguranca of the Ward line, was standing by the Joachim last night ready to trans-ship the passengers. The steamship Vigilancia is waiting at Nassau where the passengers of the Prinz Joachim will be taken after the trans-shipment. Those of the passengers wo desire to continue on their voyage will proceed southward on the Vigilancia, while those who wish to return to New York will be brought here on the Seguranca.

The Prinz Joachim is believed to be in no particular danger at this time as the last reports indicated that the weather was fine and that only the liner's forward compartment had filled with water.

Dr. J. H. Hosford has removed his office from the Kappel building, on East Wayne street, to his residence, 225 West DeWald street.

EXPERTS PICKING FLAWS IN ARMY

Point Out in Report the Shortcomings in the Establishment.

GOOD THINGS, ALSO

Washington, Nov. 23.—The inspectors were busy picking flaws in the army last year and apparently found a number. These are set out in the annual report of the inspector general's department which was made this year by A. W. Brewster, acting inspector general.

The inspectors were required to test the mobility of the troops, putting them into camp for at least four days; trying out the bayonet and sabre drill and testing the marching capacity. The conditions developed by these exercises show that the field preparedness of the army was not uniformally satisfactory.

One inspector reported that a large majority of the troops were not properly trained. Another held that garrison work should be curtailed and the training carried on in the field. Still another said there was too much parade drill and a disposition to confine the field education to the occasional practice marches. None of the organizations was classed as proficient in sabre and bayonet drill. Marching capacity varied from post to post. When the feet of the command were hard and the soldiers experienced, the results were good. Most of the sore feet resulted from improperly fitted shoes, too tight fit being the rule.

The Maneuvers in Texas.

The maneuvers in Texas are extensively reviewed in the report. It is declared that the concentration was undoubtedly a great benefit to the army and it is recommended that another division be mobilized, with units filled to war strength, all officers being present and with staff, trains and equipment complete. Motor trucks were shown to be desirable and automobiles absolutely necessary for the use of field officers. The attempt to fill up the skeleton organizations with green recruits worked badly. A marked deficiency was a lack of serviceable animals. The infantry is said to need much instruction in marching and a suggestion is made for a heroic test in order to learn what can be expected by having an infantry company, at war strength, march with an auto truck from San Francisco to New York.

On the whole the army seems a well disciplined body, no criticism on that score having been received. The same old complaint of absence of officers from their regiments and companies was renewed, notwithstanding the fact that quite a number of officers were added to the army by a recent act of congress to cure this evil.

There are a great many civil service employes in the military establishment and the report strongly urges the enactment of legislation that will provide a retirement system for their benefit.

MORDKIN IS WITH IMPERIAL BALLET

CONFUSION OF NAMES

For a day or two reports have been current that Mikail Mordkin, the greatest star of the All-Star Russian Imperial ballet that is to appear at the Majestic tomorrow night, would not be with the ballet in its performance here. This is untrue. M. Mordkin will be seen here with the imperial dancers.

The reports have evidently arisen from confusion of the great dancer with C. William Kolb, the star comedian at first advertised to appear here tonight with "The Girl in the Train." Mr. Kolb will not appear tonight, as was announced by the Majestic management as soon as it was known he was not with the company. But the reports as to Mordkin are altogether without foundation.

When the judge began instructing the jury regarding verdicts Simms' wife, who faced the twelve men, leaned over and buried her face in her hands. Simms also bent over and did not look at the jurymen. Clark and Schmidt, however, gazed straight into the faces of the jurors as they have done ever since the arguments started.

The passing of the jury from the room did not diminish the crowd to any great extent. There is a feeling here that a verdict will be reached quickly and the "regulars" do not want to miss it.

which discontent was voiced at their "unwarranted persecution."

Vice President John Mitchell declared he was sick of the whole matter and that he was anxious to have the affair ended.

give the homestead and the greater portion of the ground to the city at her death under an arrangement that would peserve the property to public use forever.

Members of the school board do not look upon the offer with favor, holding that it would be unwise to acquire property thus located in proximity to school property with restrictions that would make it impossible to convert it to school purposes if the future necessity to do so should arise. No further action has been taken in the condemnation proceedings since the filing of the suit and the answer some time ago.

CITY BREVITIES.

Mrs. F. H. Peters received word this morning from Rochester, Minn., where her daughter, Miss Callie, underwent an operation, stating that the operation had been most successful.

Mrs. G. B. Parry, of 2122 Force street, was removed to her home from Hope hospital yesterday. Mrs. Parry has been in a very weak condition for the past three weeks, due to a surgical operation.

Prof. R. R. Houlton, formerly a professor of music in Fort Wayne, but for many years a resident of Deadwood, S. D., is in the city attending the Scottish rite jubilee celebration. Prof. Houlton has the distinction of being the only Scottish Rite Mason of the Southern jurisdiction in attendance at the present convocation.

Mrs. E. E. Housel, of Garrett, rural route No. 1, is a patient at Lutheran hospital and will undergo an operation Saturday. Mrs. J. M. Scheich, of Spy Run avenue, underwent an operation Wednesday. Henry Goeglein, of Concordia college, was operated on today.

BURNS SPRINGS NEW SENSATION

Detective in McNamara Case Says Witnesses Are Threatened.

DARROW DENIES IT

New Orleans, La., Nov. 23.—Witnesses for the prosecution in the Los Angeles Times dynamiting case have been threatened with death after having withstood repeated efforts of agents of the defense to bribe them, declared Wm. J. Burns, the detective in an address today before the state secretaries section of the American Bankers' association.

Burns bitterly arraigned Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Eugene V. Debs, and other "would be leaders" of organized labor, but declared that nine-tenths of organized labor is opposed to violence and not in sympathy with "efforts of the small element to destroy organized society and lessen respect for the laws of the country."

Mr. Burns reiterated that a fund of over $1,000,000 had been collected or pledged for the defense of the McNamaras.

"When I first made that statement," he said, "Gompers promptly announced that it was a lie. But he did not give any figures nor did he inform the public as to the source of some of this large aggregation of money. "He contented himself by saying it was a lie, which only goes to show the character of men who are attacking me.

"I tell you they have the money and they have endeavored to buy our witnesses. They have offered some of the prosecution's witnesses their own price and when these were refused they have been threatened with death. We have actually found it necessary to hide some of our witnesses."

DARROW BRANDS IT AS FALSE.

Los Angeles, Nov. 23.—"What Burns is reported to have said is in keeping with what he has said previously," said Attorney Clarence S. Darrow, chief counsel for James B. McNamara, referring to the address of Detective Wm. J. Burns today in New Orleans. "There is not a word of truth in it."

Officials of the district attorney's office would not discuss the statement.

GIRL SWALLOWS ACID IS REPORT

Miss Daugherty Said to Be in a Critical Condition.

FAMIL YDENIES IT

A report to the police station late this afternoon states that Miss Sybil Daugherty, residing at 706 Wildwood avenue, swallowed poison and is in a very critical condition.

It was reported that the young woman had been taken to the Lutheran hospital, but authorities there denied that she had been brought to the institution, and said they were without information concerning the case.

At the Daugherty home it was denied that Miss Daugherty had made an attempt upon her life. It was stated that she had been ill and that a sudden change for the worse in her condition had probably given rise to the rumor.

At 3:40 o'clock this afternoon the Motor Transfer company's ambulance answered a call from Wildwood avenue.

The police information was that the young woman had swallowed acid.

tors or technicalities occur. It is held that the so-called doctrine of presumed prejudice, which assumes that every error in the record is manifestation of prejudice on the part of the court and hence is ground for setting aside a judgment, no longer can live for the new amendment stipulates that the error complained of must be shown to have directly affected the verdict of the jurors.

Today's task in the McNamara trial was the obtaining of two talesmen satisfactory to both sides to fill the jury box for the third round of peremptory challenges, of which the defense has eleven out of twenty left and the state five out of ten.

DECATUR NEWS.

Decatur, Ind., Nov. 23.—The Yeomen lodge, of this city, will confer work on a class of Yeomen candidates at Fort Wayne next Monday. The order here has been putting much practice on their drilling in preparation for the event.

The social calendar for the rest of the week includes meetings of the Florhal De Purin club with Clara Bultemeier, United Brethren Aid with Mrs. Goodwin, Sina Cura club with Agnes Mojhers, all tonight and the Needlecraft club with Miss Maymie Kitson tomorrow night and the M. E. Mite society tomorrow afternoon at the church.

The Presbyterian aid will hold a bazaar in the interurban block the first week in December.

Anthony Voglewede, of Route 2, was a business visitor in the city today.

Miss Vena Bohnke is at Fort Wayne the guest of her sister, Mrs. Herman Miller, widow of Mr. Miller. Her sister may accompany Miss Bohnke home to live here.

WM. F. SPRANDEL ANSWERS CALL

Death Came to Janitor of First Presbyterian Church This Afternoon.

WAS ILL TWO WEEKS

William F. Sprandel, for the last sixteen years ajnitor at the First Presbyterian church, and for thirty years previous clerk at the old Aveline hotel, died at 2 o'clock this afternoon at his home, 221 East Wayne street, following a stroke of apoplexy suffered two weeks ago last night while on duty as janitor at the First Presbyterian church.

Mr. Sprandel had partially recovered from this appolectic attack and it was thought until the last few days that he was on the road to recovery, although since suffering the stroke he had been confined to his bed. But his condition took a turn for the worse Wednesday and today, resulting in his death, which will come as a surprise and a shock to his large circle of friends in this city.

He was born Feb. 12, 1843, in Spreilberg Koenigreich, Wurttenberg, and came to this country as a lad. He had been a resident of this city for many years. Surviving him is his widow and son, Wm. F. Sprandel, jr., an electrician in the employ of the Pennsylvania in this city.

The deceased was a man of many excellent traits of character and esteemed by all who enjoyed his acquaintance. He was loved by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church, to whom the news of his death will come fraught with sadness.

LEPPER.

Sheldon L. Lepper, a well known farmer, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning at his home in Adams township, after an illness of three months from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Lepper was born in Adams township and was a lifelong resident there. His age was 62 years, 11 months and 18 days. Surviving relatives include the widow and four children—Henry C. Lepper, Mrs. H. Judt, Mrs. H. Finran and Mrs. W. Rodenbeck; two brothers—Fred and Henry Lepper, and a sister, Mrs. Henry Gerke. There are five grandchildren.

The deceased was a member of the Lutheran church. Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, sun time, from the residence; interment at the Soest cemetery. Friends will please omit flowers.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Galleher:—Funeral services for Dr. J. Gore Galleher will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the residence, 1001 East Wayne street, thence to the Scottish Rite Cathedral at 2 o'clock.

SHOW GIRLS ON TRIAL.

Women Who Shot W. E. D. Stokes Taken Into Court.

New York, Nov. 23.—Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad, the show girls who shot W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire sportsman last June were brought to trial today on indictments charging them with having attempted to take his life. Two other counts charge assault. Both young women were in the court room, stylishly attired.

Supreme Court Justice Marcus, of Buffalo, presides at the trial. Indications are that considerable time will be spent in selecting a jury.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

The first of two bridge parties of much beauty of arrangement was given this afternoon by Mrs. Jesse F. Patterson and Mrs. John Wolfrum at Mrs. Patterson's home, in West Sutteufield street. The guests found exceedingly pretty rooms with an added decoration of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns that wreathed the chandeliers and formed an effective combination altogether lovely to see. A supper of pretty appointment and delicious menu was served after the game. Miss Katherine Cook, Miss Vivian Erickson and Miss Rose Cook lent assistance to the hostess during the supper hour. Master Tommy Wolfrum, son of the assisting hostess, had a share in helping as he opened the door for the guests on their arrival. There were players for nine tables this afternoon and tomorrow the same hostesses will entertain a still larger company.

HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING.

Needlework Guild Elects Officers and Hears Reports of Interest.

The annual round-up of the Needlework Guild and the election of officers took place yesterday afternoon in the assembly room of the court house. The officers for the coming years are president, Mrs. Frederick McCulloch; vice presidents are Mrs. S. B. Bond, Mrs. E. E. Morgan, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. A. E. Carroll; secretary, Miss Florence Foster and treasurer, Mrs. Herbert Lang. With much reluctance resignations of Miss Katherine Hoffman, who had been secretary for eleven years, and Mrs. Allen Hamilton, treasurer, were accepted. Mrs. McCulloch was re-elected as president and other officers, even those new in office, are of young women capable, energetic and enthusiastic in the work. One of the interesting things about the meeting yesterday, aside from the exhibit of garments, were addresses by Miss McPhail, regarding the distribution of garments to public school children. Mrs. S. B. Bond concerning the aid thus lent the visiting nurse, Miss Mary Williard, similarly about the Relief union and a tribute of respect and honor for the late Mrs. Frances Willey, of California, whose work in the guild of this city previous to her moving to San Diego, had been an inspiration to every other worker in the same direction. The collections of articles by the guild this year have been distributed as follows: For school children, 682; St. Joe hospital, 63; Lutheran hospital, 55; Hope hospital, 57; Gospel Mission, 115; City Mission, 92; Relief Union, 249; Allen County Orphans, 242; Reformed Orphans' home, 207; St. Vincent's Orphan asylum, 178; Visiting Nurse, 235; Willing Workers' Aid society, 186; Y. W. C. A., 140.

Mrs. Theodore Ruhland, of Chicago, who is spending a few days here with friends, was the guest for whom Mrs. M. H. Dukes gave a theater party at the Temple vaudeville this afternoon. Mrs. Ruhland's visit will not be as long as had been expected and a number of social affairs planned in her honor have been given up, as she expects to return home tomorrow.

Mrs. Charles Snowberger, of 335 Masterson avenue, will entertain the Friday Bridge club to which she belongs tomorrow afternoon.

The ladies of the Sans Facon club and their husbands will be entertained on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Pape.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graper, of Lake avenue, entertained at cards last evening in a way that afforded their guests great pleasure. The decorations were carried out in red and white roses. A fine supper was served. Prizes at cards were won by Miss Katherine Vollmer and Frederick Vollmer. The guests were Miss Nora Krick, Miss Katherine Trautman, Miss Katherine Vollmer, Mrs. Wm. Luntz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crance, Oscar Sutherlin, Frederick Luntz, Frederick Vollmer and Frederick Deerhmann.

RASTETTER'S FAIRY THEATER.

The 1911 World's Series baseball games between the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Athletics are the big feature at the Fairy theater today. Local fans have an opportunity to see the great games just as they were played last month. All of the favorites are taken at close range, and from the first flickering of the light on the screen until the reel finally unwinds the audience is treated to some real excitement in the form of motion pictures. Mathewson, Bender, Baker, Meyers and the rest of the stars play the games over again for the Fort Wayne people.

WILL BE TAUGHT TO SAVE PENNIES

Wabash School Children May Deposit Money With Their Teachers If They Like.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 23.—The school authorities of this city have decided to start a school savings bank immediately after the Thanksgiving vacation. The idea is to encourage the boys and girls in the grades to learn how to save.

The plan in brief is as follows: The Wabash County Loan & Trust company has consented to act as depository. Deposits in any amount from one cent up are to be received by any grade teacher on Friday of each week. When a pupil makes a deposit, the teacher will give him a savings account card on which she will note the amount he deposits and the total he has on deposit. When his deposit amounts to one dollar or more the loan and trust company will issue to him a pass book. Each additional full dollar will be deposited at the bank in the child's name and entered on his pass book. Any part or all of a deposit may be withdrawn on request of both pupil and parent.

The first deposits will be received on Friday, December 8.

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT.

Thieves Blow Van Buren Postoffice Safe for Fifth Time.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 23.—Safe robbers made another effort Tuesday night or early yesterday morning to rob the Van Buren postoffice and for the fifth time in the history of the postoffice at that place the safe was blown open.

The robbers were less fortunate in securing booty than on former occasions, and although they blew open the outer door of the large safe did not secure a penny for their work and their risk.

It is thought that the robbers were frightened away before they had time to gain the inner compartment of the safe, possibly by the approach of a special car on the M. R. & E. traction line.

The attempt at robbery was not discovered until morning and therefore had the raiders known it they could have worked patiently for an indefinite period in their efforts to pry open the inner door to the safe. It is barely possible that they did work until the approach of morning and were afraid to remain longer on the scene.

BODY IN CORN SHOCK.

Rochester, Ind., Nov. 23.—The dead body of James Henderson, age 50, was found on Tuesday in a corn shock on a farm at the edge of Grass Creek, near this city. While Melvin Thomas was walking through his corn field he noticed a man's head protruding from a shock of corn. When the shock was moved the body of Henderson was found. The dead man had been missing since the night of Nov. 11, when Fulton county was visited by a blizzard. Henderson is believed to have sought the shelter of the corn shock during the storm and to have frozen to death while sleeping. It is alleged he had been drinking, a habit to which he was addicted.

ORGANIZATION ASSURED.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 23.—The organization of the Warsaw Merchants' Trade association is practically assured, and it is likely that the organization will be perfected at the public meeting to be held on Friday evening of this week. It is probable that at that time directors will be appointed and steps started for the incorporation under the state laws.

AILMENTS OF MEN HAPPILY OVERCOME

SUCCESSFULLY TRIED BY MANY.

Undoubtedly the following prescription will work wonders for that great class of men who, through dissipation of their natural strength, find themselves in their "second childhood" long before the three score and ten allotted to life's pleasures and enjoyments are reached.

It is presumed to be infallible, and highly efficient in quickly restoring in "nervous exhaustion," weak vitality, melancholia and the functions.

First get fifty cents' worth of compound fluid balmwort in a one-ounce package, and three ounces syrup sarsaparialla compound; take home, mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom). Mix all in a six or eight ounce bottle, shake well, and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring followed by a drink of water.

By mixing it at home no man need be the wiser as to another's shortcomings, and expensive fees are avoided.

Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full, bounding health, and all the happiness accompanying it, the above home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habit forming drugs whatever. Mix it at home and no one will be the wiser as to your affliction.

FINDS NEIGHBOR HANGING IN BARN

Christian Amstutz, of Hudson, Commits Suicide—No Reason Known.

Ashley, Ind., Nov. 23.—When Marshal Truman Clay, of Hudson, went to the barn belonging to Christian Amstutz yesterday afternoon to borrow a ladder, he discovered the dead body of the latter swinging from a rafter. A large hunting knife lay on the floor beside the remains of the suicide, and it is evident that Amstutz intended to take no chances when he decided to commit suicide.

Amstutz was last seen alive yesterday morning, and it is thought that he took his own life some time between 10 o'clock and noon.

The victim of his own rash act was 55 years of age, and a bachelor. He was born and reared in Fairfield township, living on a farm there until he removed to a farm north of Hudson. This he sold three years ago and moved to town. No cause for his act can be surmised. The funeral will be held Friday at the Hudson M. E. church.

DOCTORS IN SESSION.

Wells County Medics Have Interesting Meeting.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 23.—The regular meeting of the Wells County Medical society was held Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. Garrett, in Liberty Center, and one of the most enjoyable sessions of the year was the result. There were fourteen of the physicians present and three visitors from Warren. The early part of the evening was taken up with the regular work of the society. Two papers were read, one by Dr. L. H. Cook and the other by Dr. Louis Severin, of Bluffton, and the general discussion followed. After the meeting the physicians were invited to partake of a supper prepared by Mrs. Garrett. An elegant three course supper was served and Dr. S. A. Shoemaker, of Bluffton, secretary of the society, made a short speech, voicing the thanks of the visitors for their royal treatment.

NEW ORDER ORGANIZED.

Huntington, Ind., Nov. 23.—Incorporation was granted a new fraternal insurance organization at Indianapolis Tuesday, which is to have its headquarters in this city and to be known as "The Ravens." Eleven Huntington men are named as the incorporators and the organization is without capitalization. Explanations were made Wednesday by those interested. The project had been worked up with some secrecy, numerous meetings having been held by the promoters, but publicity was withheld pending the state incorporation.

SOON TAKE PLACES.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 23.—Three officers who were chosen in Kosciusko county at the general election in November, 1910, will take their places Jan. 1, 1912. The other county officers, elected at that time, took up the yoke of their duties on Jan. 1, 1911, and have already served almost a year. The three officers to take up their work this year are Conrad Longenecker, clerk; Victor Mock, auditor, and J. W. Brown, commissioner from Middle district.

WANT LIBRARY OPEND.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 23.—The ladies' clubs of this city are making an effort to have the local library reopened. The clubs have named a committee to meet with the trustees and Mayor Bloom, in an effort to get the officials to order a small tax levy by which the library may be maintained.

HAS TAKEN 7 TREATMENTS.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 23.—James Brown, who went to Indianapolis on last Friday to take treatment for symptoms of hydrophobia at the Pasteur institute, writes home that he has so far taken seven of the treatments and that he feels greatly improved and has been assured by those in charge that they will effect a permanent cure.

MONROEVILLE NEWS.

Monroeville, Ind., Nov. 23.—What might have been a serious fire was averted Tuesday when the part of the house owned by A. Mundorff, but occupied by his daughter, Mrs. DeWert and family, caught on fire. The prompt action of some of the neighbors held the fire in control until the arrival of the hose and it was soon put out. Clothing and bed clothing were destroyed and some damage to the house. A little five year old girl was alone and it is presumed she had been playing with matches, as it was her screaming which gave the alarm.

The members of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. J. M. Jackson Tuesday evening to make the final arrangements for their coming fair, which will begin the night of Thanksgiving and two nights following. There will be a fancy booth, flower booth, postal card booth, candy booth, handkerchief booth and a coffee and sandwich booth and a fish pond for the enjoyment of the children. Supper will be served on Saturday night for the sum of fifteen cents.

A Pint of Unequaled Cough Syrup for 50c

The Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy You Ever Used, or Money Refunded—Stops Even Whooping Cough Quickly.

You may not need the $2 which a 50-cent bottle of Pinex saves you, but you do need the wonderful effectiveness of this famous cough remedy. It will usually stop the most obstinate deep-seated cough inside of 24 hours, and has no equal for whooping cough.

A 50-cent bottle of Pinex, mixed with home-made sugar syrup, gives you a full pint—a family supply of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy you ever used. Easily prepared in five minutes—directions in package.

The way this takes hold of a cough and gives instant relief will make you regret that you never tried it before. Stimulates the appetite, is slightly laxative and tastes good—children take it willingly. It has a wonderful record in cases of incipient lung trouble and is splendid for croup, asthma, bronchitis, throat trouble, etc.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of Norway White Pine extract, rich in guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements. Simply mix with sugar syrup or strained honey, in a pint bottle, and it is ready for use. Used in more homes in the United States and Canada than any other cough remedy.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will gladly get it for you.

A HOUSEHOLD MEDICINE

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Feizer, 2526 Jefferson St., So. NOW, AS TO GARBAGE.

Increased appropriation for the disposal of garbage next year was made with a view to increased efficiency in that branch of the municipal service. The board of works was given what it asked for to carry out its program, which includes repairs of considerable extent to the crematory in Lawton park. If greater efficiency is to be had and if the added appropriation is to count for anything there must be some things in the garbage collection contract that never have been there before.

The best that can be done under the circumstances during the coming year is going to be bad enough. In the expensive way that the city employs for the destruction of garbage is dissipated a deal of money that could be better spent for collection, and in the joke that passes current here for collection, which costs as much as efficiency ought to cost, there is wasted enough more money to establish a tolerably effective system of gathering garbage.

It somehow seems to have become a tradition here that a garbage contractor cannot be required to fulfill the terms of his contract. Why this state of mind has been adapted to and adopted by successive administrations is beyond the editorial ken, but that it is so the history of public disposal of garbage in this city fully attests. There is no reason why the next garbage contractor should not give some sort of a bond by which an efficacious system of fines for negligence and carelessness may be enforced. The detail of this, however, the board may be left to work out, only it ought to make some provisions of the sort. With the increased appropriation for garbage disposal Fort Wayne next year should be kept cleaner and sweeter and healthier than ever in her history.

The congressional committee that has been investigating the steel trust has adjourned until congress convenes. At that time it is expected that John D. Rockefeller will be summoned to give testimony on the means by which he acquired the Mesaba ore railway. That will be an interesting process. It will be remembered that when Federal Judge Landis brought the oil king into his court prior to assessment of the celebrated but futile judgment mulcting the Standard Oil company for $29,000,000, Mr. Rockefeller was the incarnation of frankness. His candor was childlike. He so much wanted to help the judge to arrive at just conclusions, to aid the tribunal in its laborious task, to assist to lay the foundations for an exast justice. But it will not be remembered that Mr. Rockefeller told Judge Landis anything in particular. He was out of business; had not been president of the Standard for ever so long a time; had not been in the offices of the big concern for almost ages; really was out of touch and deficient in knowledge. Things he didn't know, of course, he couldn't tell. Mr. Rockefeller is very suave, but he also is that which made the Standard Oil company. His testimony before the Stanley committee reduced to its lowest terms will probably be naught divided by nothing.

"Many a western man has had the same experience," said the one-time owner of the Duluth and Mesaba ore road, detailing his experience with New York financiers at the time he lost his property. Of a verity many have; but the simple-minded men from the west have had no monopoly of holding the bag for the archpriests of high finance. Still the west is not wholly without consolation and recompense. Its plausible men with broad-brimmed hats and mine mud on their boots continue to come east with their pretty lithographs conveying numerous shares of stock in bonanzas that never produce anything but the proceeds of the aforesaid lithographs. These observations are in no wise meant to discount the neat job of getting it Mr. Rockefeller performed when he annexed the Mesaba ore road to his increasing share of the earth and its fullness.

The cost of living or other equally outoward circumstance seems to have been hitting Indiana postmasters and postal employes with brutal vigor. At Indianapolis yesterday Federal Judge Anderson acquitted himself of the unpleasant duty of sending four of them to the United States prison at Leavenworth, an institution which has been largely drawing its increase of population from the Hoosier state during the past two or three years. The embezzling postmaster or postal employe presents a singular psychological phenomenon. He knows just a little better than anybody that he cannot steal from the government and escape detection, and detected, conviction and punishment. Yet they plunge forward to certain undoing with a blind trust in fate that it will come out all right somehow.

Perhaps the state school cannot legally keep the money its apple exhibits won in prizes at the Indiana apple show, but Superintendent Carroll cannot be stripped of the honor nor deprived of the glory of having raised the finest fruit in the whole Hoosier state. That is worth more than the money and as an example of possibilities is worth more to the people of Northern Indiana than ten thousand cash prizes of the sort. Mr. Carroll has demonstrated that scientific measures and persistent care are able to do as much for apple culture in this part of the state as they have done for the celebrated fruit valleys of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Colorado.

Mr. Taft's friends are now said to be distraught by the recrudescence of the colonel. If there is ground for their fears, they may find numerous if not congenial company in the ranks of the LaFollette cohorts. If the contributing editor is going to ride back on his contribution it means the snuffer for everybody—Taft, LaFollette, Cummins and all the aspiring standpats, insurgents and middle-of-the-roaders. However, the colonel himself should be heard from further before panic takes complete possession of the imperilled.

Are they not just the handy little gentlemen with the law? Counsel for the beef barons have secured another stay of five days, which little bit added to what they already had makes a week's intervention. And there is not yet any certainty that they will be brought to trial on this other coming Monday set down in calendar for the proceedings to begin. Your Uncle Samuel is qualifying for what in politer forms of our tongue is described as prize boob.

THE OHIO FIGHT.

(Lincoln State Journal.)

The vigor with which the LaFollette people are organizing Ohio is explained by a fact not generally known. Ohio is not listed among the states where presidential primaries are to be held next year. It is not a state where voters have a chance to indicate directly the presidential preference. But they can do what amounts to the same thing this year. Ohio has adopted a law under which delegates to national conventions are chosen by direct primary, not in convention as in the past. As a matter of course, each leading presidential candidate will have his ticket of delegates, and the voters will have virtually a direct vote for presidential nominee.

This means a strenuous battle in Ohio, which is the home of the president and of a conspicuous democratic candidate. The LaFollette people could inflict no greater humiliation upon Mr. Taft than to wrest his own state away from him, and they are preparing to do it if possible. Grover Cleveland was nominated in 1892 notwithstanding he lost the New York delegation to David B. Hill. But that loss was the result of a political trick and helped rather than hurt the candidate who suffered. To lose in a popular primary would be a different matter.

RAY GETZ WINS CUP ONCE MORE

Triumphs for Second Time in Adding Machine Contest.

RACE A SPEEDY ONE

When, in operating an adding machine he totaled 250 checks aggregating $81,207.64 in four minutes and thirty-nine seconds at the annual adding machine contest under the auspices of the Fort Wayne chapter of the American Institute of Banking Wednesday evening, Raymond L. Getz, a clerk at the First National bank, won for the second consecutive year the Sawyer silver loving cup offered as a trophy. He also took a special prize of $5 offered by the Burroughs Adding Machine company.

The second prize in cash was won by Charles Busching, of the German-American bank, whose time was 4:58. The third prize was awarded to Arthur Schack, of the Hamilton National bank, who completed the list in 5:31. Others who secured a correct total and the time follow:

A. O. Pape, First National bank, 5:35; F. D. Hoham, First National, 5:56; Lester Baade, Hamilton National bank, 6:27; Mr. Egley, of the Grabill State bank, 6:36. All cash prizes were placed by the Burroughs Adding Machine company. The judges were Theodore Wentz, German-American; Henry Lepper, German-American Trust company; E. F. Scheumann, First National, and C. R. Willson, of the Commercial bank.

In the transient machine contest, for which prizes were awarded on drawers' names, endorsers, bank and correct amount, in all four separate columns, Osborn Garber, of the First National bank, won the first prize of $5.00. His time was 1:05¼. Other successful competitors were Edward Weiler, Hamilton, 2:17¾; Frank Frieburger, German American, 2:40, and Ray Getz, First National, 2:42.

DON'T DELAY

Some Fort Wayne People Have Learned That Neglect Is Dangerous.

The slightest symptom of kidney trouble is far too serious to be overlooked. It's the small, neglected troubles that lead to serious kidney ailments. That pain in the "small" of your back; that urinary irregularity; those headaches and dizzy spells; that weak, weary, worn-out feeling, may be nature's warning of dropsy, or fatal Bright's disease. Why risk your life by neglecting these symptoms? Reach the cause of the trouble while there yet is time—begin treating your kidneys at once with a tried and proven kidney remedy. No need to experiment—Doan's Kidney Pills have been curing kidney trouble for over 75 years. Doan's Kidney Pills are used and recommended throughout the civilized world. Endorsed at home. Read Fort Wayne testimony.

Mrs. Mary Sutley, 1108 High street, Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "I was in a bad way as the result of kidney trouble about three years ago. My back ached nearly all the time, I was very nervous and had frequent spells of dizziness. The use of a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Meyer Bros. Co.'s drug store, freed me from these troubles and I have not been bothered since then. I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills, however, finding that they act as a tonic to my kidneys and keep me in good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DIES IN COLORADO.

Former Fort Wayne Boy Dies of Injuries Received Two Weeks Ago.

A telegram received Wednesday afternoon by William A. Ersig, 324 East Jefferson street, notified him of the death of his son, Edward Ersig, a railroad fireman, who died Wednesday morning at Denver, Col., from injuries received two weeks ago in an accident on the Santa Fe & Rio Grande railroad. The message was from the wife of the deceased and stated that the funeral and interment would take place at Denver. Mr. Ersig was notified at the time his son was injured, but has since heard nothing of him, and supposed that he was improving, and news of his death came as a great shock.

The deceased was born in Fort Wayne and was 32 years of age. He was educated in the public schools of this city and for a few years after leaving school was employed at the Rastetter facory and the Fort Wayne Electric works. Twelve years ago he removed to Colorado and six years ago was married at Loveland, Col., two children being born to the union. With his wife and family he visited his father in this city for a week last summer.

ASKS MORE GAMBLING FACTS.

Telephone Company Counsel Writes to Governor's Legal Clerk.

Indianapolis, Nov. 23.—John B. Elam, general counsel for the New Long Distance Telephone company, has written Burt New, legal clerk to Governor Marshall, asking that the governor submit additional evidence of race track gambling being carried on over the lines of the company by the Chicago News bureau, of which Mont Tennes is proprietor. Mr. New will take no action in the matter until the return of Governor Marshall. William Fortune, president of the company, said Mr. Elam is waiting to hear from the governor before taking action. It is understood the company contends that the contract with the news service concern is practically the same as that regulating newspaper race news and that it is not illegal.

A MAIL CARRIER'S LOAD

Seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Duehren, Mail Carrier at Atchison, Kas., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of mail, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago, I started taking Foley Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever." Foley Kidney Pills are tonic in action and quick in results. Try them. Dreier Drug Co.

It's Just as Easy as Can Be To Buy a Pianola Piano

¶ And the arrangements are just between ourselves; no bothersome embarrassing questioning, no red tape, and if you've a piano that you want to exchange as a part payment, we're always ready to allow you a very liberal amount.

¶ Bear in mind the PIANOLA contains the Metrostyle which shows you exactly how to interpret each phrase as the composer intended. A red line on the Pianola roll indicates this and a pointer in the Metrostyle action enables you to follow the interpretation, or to introduce your own, just as you choose. Other exclusive features are the Themodist, the graduated accompaniment, the sustaining action. Without these wonderful features which are found only in the Pianola, artistic expression is impossible. The Pianola is so easy to operate that the little folks can play as well as an accomplished musician.

¶ Suppose you come in and talk it over—really it puts you under no obligation at all. The Pianola is built into but five Pianos: Steinway, Weber, Steck, Wheelock, Stuyvesant. The entire line is sold in Fort Wayne only by

Artistic, Also New

A Few Notes on Bank Notes and Others.

"CERTAINLY am pleased to note," observed the Troubled Tourist, "that Uncle Sam is going to print us a lot more one, two and five dollar notes. I thought I had noticed a scarcity of the same around here for some time past. In response to the demand, so the papers tell us, they are going to turn out about ten million additional sheets of notes for the current fiscal year. That ought to give us all a chance.

"Just when the distribution takes place, however, doesn't seem to have been made public yet. If a fellow only knew the place where they were going to start handing them out he might be the first in line.

"Aside from these perfectly new notes I find there's a brand new style in checks that seems to have been popular in some quarters. Evidently growing impatient while waiting for the new money issue, certain artists have produced something new in the high art line called the hand-painted check. Ever acquire a hand-painted check? It's a nifty thing and ought to look well framed. With the aid of a camel's hair brush it seems as neat an article as you'd wish turned out. A sort of copy of an old master, as it were. Of course, these hand-painted checks have been criticised very severely by some very competent critics and I shouldn't be surprised if the last one had been painted. It will probably be a lost art now.

"Every one might hand-paint their own checks if they wanted to, instead of letting somebody else do the copying, but if a man in a hurry had to wait until the check due him was hand-painted he'd starve to death. I have an oil painting right now of a landlord waiting for the rent check to be artistically executed.

CARELESS!

"It's an artistic age. Here's a studio, for instance, in Indiana, where they teach how to crack safes by mail. Neat idea, is it not? Not. Just by writing a few little letters you can learn how to crack safes, money vaults and slot machines. The plan is certainly an excellent one from all accounts, and the sheriff is so interested he wants to know all about it.

"By the use of the safe cracking correspondence school one would not need to attend Cracksmen's College or any of the minor institutions where they have special courses in night work. All one would have to do would be to spread full instructions out before him and crack the nearest safe neatly and expeditiously. If there was any hitch in the proceedings he could leave a polite note to the proprietor asking him to let the safe remain as it was until the correspondence school could write further directions.

"So far as learning how to crack slot machines, that ought to be extremely useful, for I've often felt like cracking them when I've put a whole penny in the things and nothing has come out of them.

"A correspondence school for general burgling wouldn't be a bad idea, either, and might improve the present methods, which appear to be getting slipshod.

"Not that there's anything the matter with the school of manners for burglars. Their manners have got to be just about perfect, and they go about their work now in a gentlemanly way that commends them to all. But they're learning manners at the expense of neat work.

"Here's a second story man who was just about to make an effective entrance through an upper window when he dropped his jimmy on a tin roof and woke up everybody within a mile. That fellow would do all right to put in a ton of coal, but if he couldn't make a midnight call without the aid of a net he'd better subscribe to the correspondence school for might-be burglars."

IN THE CITY'S CHURCHES

GIVES A TALK TO NEWSBOYS

Drummer Evangelist J. E. Fleming Delivers Address Sunday Afternoon.

AT THE WESTMINSTER

An address that will be of wonderful interest to the newsboys of the city will be delivered Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Westminster Presbyterian church by J. E. Fleming, of Detroit, the "Drummer Evangelist," who has been in the city for several weeks in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. and the Fort Wayne Rescue Home and Mission. The meeting is a continuation of the Sunday afternoon meetings held in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. and is under the auspices of that association.

Mr. Fleming in his boyhood days was a typical city newsboy, without a home and ofttimes "without a place to lay his head.' As a lad 11 years of age he sold newspapers on the streets of Chicago. This was in 1869 and the papers he handled were the Tribune and the Times. He slept night after night in nooks and corners along the lake docks and in dry goods boxes around the city. The homes and gymnasiums now provided in that city for the newsboys were not features of those days.

Mr. Fleming will tell his experiences along this line and give an address that will be both interesting and instructive not only to newsboys but to others. President Phelps, of the Newsboys Union will co-operate in making the meeting a success, as will also the newspapers of the city. The meeting promises to be largely attended.

Rescue Mission Tonight.

Mr. Fleming will speak tonight at the Fort Wayne Rescue Home and Mission on East Columbia street, entering on the sixth week of the revival services he has been conducting there. He has large audiences and the meetings are increasing in interest. There have been many converts. He has sacrificed engagements and calls elsewhere because of the keen interest awakened and the blessed results obtained. As at present planned, the meetings will continue over Sunday evening next. For this evening, in the mission chapel, at 7:30 sharp, the evangelist will take for his subject, "Christ as a Healer." There will be good music, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

A CHURCH BAZAR

Given by Ladies of West Jefferson Street Church of Christ.

The Ladies' society of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ are conducting a bazar in the room at 823 Calhoun street for the sale of fancy articles for Christmas and also groceries and the serving of refreshments. It began today and will continue Friday and Saturday, the room being open day and evening. The vacant store room, which is admirably adapted for the purpose, has been handsomely decorated and booths arranged along each side. The refreshment stand is in the rear, where hot soup, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake are served. The president of the society is Mrs. C. F. Mize and the secretary, Mrs. George Irwin. Those in charge of the booths are as follows:

SIMPSON, M. E. CHURCH.

Outline of Program for Farewell Services in Old Building.

Rev. W. A. Griest, the pastor, has completed the program for the farewell services in the old edifice of the Simpson M. E. congregation next Sunday. The services begin with the Sunday school at 9:30 in the forenoon. At 10:30 the public worship includes the sermon delivered by Rev. W. F. Walker, of Indianapolis, one of the old pastors of the church, a duet by Mrs. Griest and Mr. C. B. Watterson, a song by the church quartet, and communion, the last held in the old building.

At 2:30 in the afternoon there will be an old-fashioned love feast in charge of the leaders of the classes, James Southern, W. S. Hackett, Arthur Gordon and Jacob Griest. The Epworth league meeting at 6:30 o'clock will be addressed by Miss Elsie Roush, who leaves the last of the month to engage in Missionary work in West Africa. In the evening at 7:30 the song service will be followed by the sermon of Dr. Walker and the consecration service led by the Simpson pastor, with the reception of new members, will close the worship of the day.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

Individual Churches May Unite on Denominational Lines.

The pastors of the churches of the City Ministerial association have decided not to hold a general union Thanksgiving service. Individual churches, however, will probably unite along denominational lines in services. This may be the case with the Methodists, the Presbyterians, the Baptists, and the congregations composing the Church of Christ. The program for Thanksgiving services has not yet been arranged in its details.

LAKESIDE WILL ORGANIZE NEXT

Forming New Branch of Civic Improvement Association.

MEET NEXT TUESDAY

Lakeside citizens today issued a call for a meeting to be held at the Lakeside school next Tuesday evening for the formation of a new branch of the Civic Improvement association, to co-operate with the parent body in its effort for city beautification.

At that time officers will be chosen, committees appointed, and steps taken to bring Lakeside into active participation in the movement for general city betterment. Among the speakers at the meeting will be President C. H. Worden and Secretary R. B. Hanna, of the Civic Improvement association.

In point of fact, Lakeside is perhaps entitled to credit as the pioneer in civic beautification in Fort Wayne. Several years ago, before the big idea had taken hold in this city, residents of Lakeside formed a temporary organization, collected contributions and cleaned up and beautified the north bank of the Maumee and secured the construction of a retaining wall along the dike in that section of the city.

Here's a "Cure" For Dull, Brittle Hair

"Careless or improper treatment of the scalp so often results in dull, brittle, 'stringy' hair," says Mrs. Mae Martyn, in the Baltimore Leader. "This is so easy to correct," she continues, "that it is possible for every woman to have beautiful hair, and an abundance of it.

"A teaspoonful of canthrox dissolved in a cup hot water is sufficient mixture for a thorough cleansing of scalp and hair, and shampooing with this is a positive delight. The canthrox mixture soothes, invigorates and stimulates, and quickly brings about a healthy condition, insuring a plentiful growth of silky hair that doing it up is a pleasure you will thoroughly enjoy."

FIGHTERS SMACK AND SETTLE CASE

BOTH GOT FREEDOM

A foreigner whose name is pronounced with two sneezes, a hicough and a full stop and another who gave two grunts and a snort when he was asked for his monicker literally kissed and made up in the city court today and settled an assault and battery case out of which the state was unable to get neither heads or tails.

With the aid of an interpreter the judge and Deputy Prosecutor Callahan went through all of the details of a fight without obtaining any definite results and the deputy finally said to the court: "It's pretty hard to get anything out of this and if they will promise to make up and not fight any more I would suggest that the case be continued indefinitely." When this had been agreed to the prosecutor said to the interpreter, "Tell them to kiss and make up and we will let them go."

They looked at each other for a second then embraced each other, a resounding smack indicated they had followed instructions and they were allowed to go.

Aired Their Troubles.

Arthur and Florence Lighty aired their troubles before the judge in a case in which he was called upon to defend himself against the charge of neglecting his child and he was allowed to go on his promise to see that the little one is provided for although the testimony indicated that little blame attached to him.

He charged that his wife had refused to accept money for the child and that he had been unable to persuade her to leave a home he considered unfit and to go with him to a better location.

A case of assault and battery against Mark Walters, a negro charged with beating Florence Walters, was continued until tomorrow morning.

DON'T TIE YOUR HORSE TO POSTS

If You Do a Big Copper Will Tell You Where to Head in "At."

THE MAYOR SAYS SO

Hear ye, hear ye.

It shall be both unseemly and unlawful to tie a horse to one of the new ornamental lighting posts.

Persons who so far forget themselves will have a big copper hold of them in the wagging of a sheep's tail and in the language of the street will be told where to head in "at."

"I don't believe anybody will be green enough to try it," said Mayor Grice today, "but you can't tell, so just put it in the paper and I will have the police get after the first fellow that tries it. Let it be understood these posts are not put up on the streets to hitch horses to."

The posts are being set about the court house, but they will not be all equipped for lighting until some time next week. The work of placing them on the south and east sides of the court house was practically finished this afternoon.

Will Invite Committee.

Before finally disposing of the garbage collection contract for next year the members of the board of public works will invite a conference with the members of the Commercial club committee that recently made some investigations in the matter.

While it will be impossible to make any new arrangements for disposal until next year, it is desired to improve the collection service.

Mayor Off for Trip.

Mayor Grice left today for Cleveland and eastern Ohio and will be absent from the city three or four days.

ON EAST END OF LAND PURCHASED

Passenger Terminal Will Be Located by Traction Company.

That the temporary removal of passenger station and general offices of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company to buildings now on the lots purchased for its big terminal will not delay work on that structure beyond original calculations is assured by the determination to locate the passenger terminal on the extreme east end of the tract bounded by Main, Webster, Pearl and Ewing streets.

To the west will be the trackage necessary to reach the new building, and the construction can go forward with the offices close at hand, occupying some of the residence buildings now being remodeled as temporary headquarters. Two of the larger houses left standing are to be connected by an enclosed passageway, and in one of them will be located the temporary passenger station and in the other the Longfield lunch room. Department offices will occupy the upper stories of the buildings.

Assistant General Manager Greenland returned last night from New York, where he was in attendance at a meeting of the directors of the company, with H. C. Paul and J. M. Barrett. It is stated that only routine matters were considered. No date was fixed for the beginning of work upon the new station.

ASKS ALLOWANCE TO SUPPORT HER

Mrs. English Will Oppose Husband's Action for a Divorce.

HAS A GOOD CAUSE

In the circuit court today Mrs. Margaret H. English filed an application for an allowance and stated that she has a good cause to show why her husband, Dr. C. H. English, is not entitled to a divorce. She asks $1,000 for herself and $500 to prosecute her case.

She alleges that after ten years of struggle in which she assisted her husband in obtaining a competence he began a course of cruel treatment that drove her from him after he had shattered her health.

She charges that he has been enjoying since their separation two and a half years ago, a home that cost them $13,000, has an income from his practice of $4,500 a year, gets $250 a month from the Lincoln Life Insurance company as medical examiner, holds stock in the company and has a big bank account and has given her but $400 a year for her support.

She characterizes this as a niggardly allowance and says it was not increased although she has been ill, needed a change of climate and has been compelled to go to a hospital. Barrett and Morris and Thomas and Townsend represent her.

Another Woman in Case.

Katie E. Kimmel charges in her divorce case against Jacob C. Kimmel that he spends a great deal of his time with Sarah Barnes, at 452 Bass street, and that he has neglected for a number of years to provide for his family.

She says he has spent money for the support and amusement of the other woman, has made it a habit for five years to leave home every evening as soon as supper is over and spend the greater part of the nights away. They have some property and she asks a separation for five years, $5,000 for support and the use of the dwelling they own jointly. Thomas and Townsend filed the suit.

BOYS FIND STOLEN MONEY.

Prisoner Confesses Giving Companion Holdup Proceeds to Hide.

Michigan City, Ind., Nov. 23.—More than $200 of the $630 that was taken from John Cottrill in a holdup here a week ago was found yesterday afternoon by boys who were concealing a football under a shed. The police are endeavoring to find where the rest of the money is "planted." A. J. Lane and Calvin Steele are in jail under heavy bond on charges connecting them with the robbery. Lane confessed in his preliminary hearing that he handed the money to Steele to hide.

COMING HERE FOR ACTOR.

A telegram was received at police headquarters today from New York signed Mr. and Mrs. Levy and directing that Thomas Goodyear be given the best of care. It also stated they would arrive here tomorrow afternoon to take him back to New York. Goodyear is demented and is being held at a local hospital.

ENJOY PEDRO PARTY.

Families of Ro—yal League Members Entertained at Social Session.

Over 200 were in attendance at the social session given by the members of the Royal League in honor of their families at the lodge rooms last evening. The entertainment was featured as ladies' and children's night, and from all reports it was a success in every way.

The game of the evening was progressive pedro. Fifty tables were utilized to accommodate the players. The winners were as follows: Mrs. Clyde Bookwalter; Mrs. William White, Mrs. George Lubengaus, Mrs. J. Knechle, George Connelly, Albert Welch, Fred Mitten and Peter Williams.

Following the pedro party a light lunch of sandwiches and coffee was served and the youngsters present were trated to candy. Brossard's orchestra furnished delightful music for the affair. Charles E. Fowler, of Indiana Harbor, and N. B. Brant, of Chicago, made short addresses.

The committee responsible for the good time was composed of H. C. Grannamann, Fred Fleming and Theodore Bohn.

COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHERS

SOCIETY

A large and very beautiful tea which has not been exceeded in loveliness of appointment or by the number of guests, was given this afternoon by Mrs. James M. Barrett at her home in Fairfield avenue, in which she was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Walter A. Barrett. The house was extremely attractive, the wide hall and large rooms on either side lending themselves to the chrysanthemum, southern smilax and oak leaf decoration as if arranged for just such purposes. Miss Flick, who had charge of the decoration, let her artistic taste have full sway as the ideas of the hostesses were along the same lines. Yellow was the predominating color, but the oak foliage made fine and harmonious contrasts and the yellow tones of the shaded lights were half hidden in the greens of southern smilax or plumosus. The same effective colors were displayed in the dining room, where Mrs. Miles F. Porter and Miss Edna Reuss poured the coffee. Yellow chrysanthemums and handsome yellow shades to the candles and in the electrolier were suggestive of the color scheme and aided in making the scene one of brilliance and beauty. The two hostesses received in the drawing room and assisting ladies in all rooms were Mrs. Charles E. Bond, Mrs. Stephen D. Bond, Mrs. E. S. Bradshaw, Mrs. L. Park Drayer, Mrs. Frances Robertson, Mrs. J. M. Kuhns, Mrs. Clarence Shoo, Mrs. Walter Massey, Mrs. Edmund Miller, Miss Harwood and Miss Grace Smith.

Miss Frances Dreier, of 630 West Berry street, will be the hostess for a meeting of the College club tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kettler are entertaining C. D. Campbell, of New York, who has recently returned from a four years' absence in Kobe and Yokohama, Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Eversole entertained in honor of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnston, of Warsaw, on Monday evening at a dinner party. Ferns and bride roses made a beautiful decoration for the dinner table and the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston were married on November 16. Mrs. Eversole was assisted by Misses Pearl Short and Helen Doswell.

Miss Mabel Goulef, of Greenwood avenue, entertained the office girls of the Wayne Knitting Mills at a luncheon on Tuesday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. Miss Goulef was assisted in the dinningroom by Miss Nellie Goulef, Miss Pearl Short and Miss Edith Brady. Pink carnations and pink hooded candles in crystal holders made a charming decoration for the table.

One of the prettiest of pre-nuptial parties was given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. John Rohlman, of Dearborn street, in honor of Miss Edith Uhlenhake, whose marriage to Christ Hessert will take place on Thanksgiving day. A shower of miscellaneous gifts was presented the coming bride. A supper was served and the decorations were carried out in green and white with flowers, ferns, candles under pretty shades, all combining in an appropriate effect. There were eighteen in the company.

Henderson—Hayes.

Miss Catherine Hayes and Mr. William Henderson were married on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. D. Stevens, of 1103 Hanna street. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, the wedding was a very quiet affair. The house was prettily decorated in pink and white flowers and festoons. Supper was served immediately after the marriage. There were no guests outside of the family of the bride's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left at once on a trip to California. They expect to return here about the first of February. For traveling the bride wore a blue cloth suit with blue hat trimmed with ostrich plumes.

Babb—Anderson.

Miss Katherine Anderson and Mr. Samuel K. Babb were married on Wednesday evening at half past 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jackson L. Smethers, of 2403 Force street, in the presence of the two immediate families. Rev. J. K. Cecil performed the ceremony. The bride entered the parlor where the marriage service was read with her brother, Mr. John Anderson, and as Mrs. Anderson played "Melody of Love." The bride was dressed in a tailored gown of white serge, which was very becoming and she was given in marriage by her brother. After the impressive ceremony the heartiest of congratulations were extended to both bride and groom. The invited guests included these relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Archart, of Montpelier, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Babb, of Huntington, and Mr. Samuel Kilander, grandfather of the bridegroom, also of Huntington. The house was very pretty in its decoration of yellow and white chrysanthemums, ferns and small palms, which were arranged in all the rooms. The bridal couple stood in front of a grouping of the greens and flowers for the ceremony and while receiving congratulations. Later in the evening Miss Fern Winters, Miss Gussie Deppen and Miss Hazel Archart assisted in serving a buffet supper in the dining room. The bride cut the wedding cake and passed it. The bride and groom dispensed with a wedding trip and will be at home at once at 1310 Horace street. Mr. Babb is employed at the Pennsylvania round house and is held in high regard by all who know him. He is a son of Mrs. Cyrus Swank, of Buchanan street. The bride is a musician and had been the pianist for some years for Ben Hur lodge, besides being prominent in the young people's work of the First M. E. church, where her musical ability was frequently called into service. A number of "shower" parties have been given during the month for the bride, who is a young woman of beautiful character. The hostesses at these occasions included Miss Alice Smith, Miss Mayme Kavanaugh, Miss Deppen, Miss Zella Kurch, Miss Fern Winters, Miss Ruth Ridenour and Miss Sadie Roy, in addition to a complimentary party by members of the Epworth league of the church.

Reynolds—Rombke.

A very pretty and sweet young bride of Wednesday was Miss Clara Rombke, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rombke, of 2214 Holton avenue, who was married to Mr. John Reynolds, at 6 o'clock in the evening, by Rev. Dr. Samuel Wagenhals. Miss Alberta Weeks played the bridal music from "Lohengrin" as the bride and groom came down stairs and took their place in the parlor, which had been beautifully decorated with a bower of white chrysanthemums and foliage. The bride wore a white satin gown made with a slight train and trimmed with fine lace and silk fringe. A veil of tulle enveloped the bride and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. During the service when the bride was plighting her troth with a ring, Miss Weeks played a sweet melody very softly. Immediately after congratulations a delicious supper was served the company, about forty in number. The house was extremely pretty in its decorations. The diningroom was in pink and many artificial chrysanthemums had been used as well as blooming plants and cut flowers. No other flower was used in the decorative plan. Festoons of mums in the diningroom and a basket of them in the center of the table together with a large and handsomely decorated bride's cake made the room very attractive. The livingroom was done in yellow and there were plants of the button chrysanthemums and bouquets of larger ones prettily arranged. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowen, of Green Springs, O.; Miss Elsie Kapper, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. R. Brockerman, of Chicago. The bride and groom have gone directly to housekeeping and will be at home to their friends after Nov. 27 at 2432 Hanna street. The bridegroom is a young man of excellent character and is a clerk in the Pennsylvania offices. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reynolds.

LADIES' HEBREW BENEVOLENT SOCIETY FIFTY YEARS OLD—OFFICERS AND SURVIVING CHARTER MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY

Benevolence and society were represented today in the jubilee celebration of the Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent association when forty-seven ladies gathered in honor of the event at the Anthony hotel. This important society of this city has ever been devoted to quiet works of charity, though there has been at times a social element introduced in honor of various anniversaries. Today an elaborate and beautifully appointed luncheon at the Anthony hotel at 1 o'clock was to do honor, not only to the fiftieth anniversary of the organization, but to the three charter members who are still living, to recall the early days of the society when the country needed just such help as that band of unselfish and noble women gave. Nothing has been more significant of the united purpose of the association than its keeping in office its various presidents, many of whom have served many years. Mrs. Joseph Lohman, the present highest officer of the association, has served in the same capacity for nearly ten years, though not entirely in successive terms. Other former presidents are Mrs. Alex Lauferty, now living in Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Max B. Fisher, Mrs. Aaron Rothschild, Mrs. Samuel Chaska and Mrs. Ben Lehman. The three charter members now living and who were able to be present at the luncheon are Mrs. M. Lamley, who served many years as secretary of the society; Mrs. S. Freiburger and Mrs. E. Rosenthal. The presidents and charter members were seated at the honor table and others at small tables. The present officers of the association are president, Mrs. Joseph Lohman; vice president, Mrs. Isidor Lehman; secretary, Mrs. Louis Heilbroner, and treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Clark. There were also present several out of town visitors, Mrs. Simon Straus, Mrs. Isaac Straus, Mrs. Seelig and Mrs. Schloss, all of Ligonier, and Mrs. Louis Meyer, of South Whitley. All of these ladies were formerly members of the society. A feature of the luncheon was the reading of letters and telegrams from people not living here, who are children of charter members. Many of these letters contained gifts for the association. The floral decorations of the luncheon, in charge of the Flick Floral company, were in gold and white. On the large table in its center stood an effective combination of crystal vases filled with small yellow chrysanthemums, known as the sweetness variety. On the small tables stood low gold baskets of yellow chrysanthemums. At each plate stood a favor of a tiny gold basket filled with nuts. White tulle bows tied the handles. Another decorative feature intended as a souvenir were yellow satin ribbon on the order of a badge. On these were printed verses appropriate for the occasion, written by M. Frank and they were sung to the tunes of Auld Lang Syne and Lauterbach, just at the close of the luncheon, which was served in the banquet hall of the hotel. The three charter members wore corsage bouquets of violets tied with ribbons, the gifts of the society, and most fragrant remembrances of the day. After the luncheon the Bailhe trio gave a program of chamber music, thus bringing to a delightful close one of the most beautiful anniversary gatherings ever held in the city. The committee on arrangements for the affair was composed of Mrs. Theodore Frank, general chairman; Mrs. Louis Heilbroner, Mrs. A. Rothschild, Mrs. Julius Nathan, Mrs. Joseph Lohman, Mrs. Ben Lehman and Mrs. Isidor Lehman. An interesting historical sketch of the society was read by Mrs. M. Lamley, as follows:

"Mrs. President and Ladies: I have been requested by our worthy president and committee to give you a brief abstract of the history of our Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent society members who are meeting here today to do honor to its fiftieth anniversary, and to the charter members in particular, of which I am one of the three remaining. I have accepted reluctantly, as it is a great effort on my part to do justice to the subject assigned to me in the present condition fate has seen fit to place me. But as one of the committee so sweetly remarked to me, 'Mrs. Lamley, the society is your child,' this reminded me that a mother's duty never ceases. Though our hearts are sore, the mind weakened, nerves unstrung and we are estranged from our familiar surroundings, our feelings remain unchanged towards the object we once loved. To some of you ladies I may appear almost a stranger; I myself feel a stranger in my own land. Ladies, I beg your indulgence for my effort, simple and pure.'

"Statistics are generally a bore, but I will try to be brief. If anything of importance has been omitted, I trust for your consideration.

"This 'child' was born November 4, 1861, fifty years ago, during the administration of our immortal Lincoln, when slavery was to be abolished which separated the north from the south and war was proclaimed.

Organized Relief Society.

"We followed the ranks of all America. A meeting was called to organize a soldiers' relief society. Every married woman in our community responded. All worked diligently for the worthy cause. Boxes of linen, clothing, provisions, etc., were sent out to the boys in blue who had left home and family to battle for and save the flag of our glorious republic. When peace reigned once more between the north and the south, when the weapon was exchanged for the plow, our work was also finished. We then felt that a clasp was wanted to fasten the chain of social and charitable ties and this organization was founded. Twenty-three ladies signed the constitution. They were Mrs. F. Nirdlinger, Mrs. Sam Nirdlinger, Mrs. S. Freiburger, Mrs. I. Lauferty, who were officers; Mrs. I. Minchweiler, Mrs. B. Engstein, Mrs. S. Becker, Mrs. S. Rodelsheimer, Mrs. E. Lauferty, Mrs. A. Oppenheimer, Mrs. B. Falk, Mrs. M. Graff, Mrs. B. Fisher, Mrs. A. Heilbroner, Mrs. L. Wolf, Mrs. Philip Meyerson, Mrs. Dr. Rosenthal, Mrs. M. Lamley, Mrs. D. Sax, Mrs. V. Jacobson, Mrs. E. Rosenthal, Mrs. F. Lessman, Mrs. B. Zekind, Mrs. B. Rodelshiemer.

"We were not familiar with parliamentary law, but our fundamental principles were harmony and peace, to practice benevolence and charity in its true sense. We followed the dictates of Job—to be an eye to the blind, an ear to the deaf, provide for the needy, welcome the stranger to be at home with us. The call of distress was answered to the extent of our funds. We did not know the trained nurse of today. We individually devoted ourselves day and night to the sick and afflicted. We were all young wives, and youth knows no hardships. They were willing hands and tender hearts, those of 'your mothers.'

Progress is Noted.

"The obligations were five cents weekly; later $3 a year. An increase of membership to thirty-three is found in the twenty-fifth report, the silver anniversary of the organization, which was celebrated most elegantly with a banquet in Arion hall. Every member and her entire family participated. Then fifteen of the charter members were present, five being absent and three deceased. The exercises opened with prayer by Dr. Aaron. Toasts were responded to by Dr. Rosenthal, S. Lauferty, M. Frank and M. Lamley, who was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Schlesinger, who was president at the time, made a few remarks of welcome, and Mrs. M. Frank, treasurer, also made a short address of welcome. Mrs. M. Lamley, secretary, read an abstract of the history of the organization. The total receipts for the time, 1867 to 1886, were $3,481.10. This sum was expended thus: Nine hundred dollars to the orphans' asylum in Cleveland, O.; many dollars to improvements on the synagogue, and the balance in donations to verious benevolent purposes. From whichever direction misfortune called it was met with willing response. A room was furnished in Hope hospital and kept for a number of years; but I will not tax your patience with details. The records honor them.

A Complimentary Social.

"On March 27, 1901, a complimentary social was given in honor of the remaining charter members. Eight answered the call. They were Mrs. A. Oppenheimer, Mrs. L. Falk, Mrs. S. Redelsheimer, Mrs. A. Heilbroner, Mrs. V. Jacobson, Mrs. S. Freiburger, Mrs. E. Rosenthal and Mrs. M. Lamley. Thirty-six members and several invited guests participated. Our worthy president, Mrs. Joseph Lohman, welcomed the honor guests most beautifully. Mrs. Oppenheimer responded in behalf of the charter members. Mrs. Lamley read a paper on the past, present and future of this organization. The closing remarks of this paper were these: 'May this association continue as a lasting monument to coming generations.' Truly we find our hopes verified. Ten years have passed and this society devoted to philanthropy, charity and sociability still exists, improved and on a solid basis. We are affiliated with every charitable institution in the city, irrespective of creed; also with the Hebrew Orphans' home in Cleveland and the Denver hospital. Every good cause is honored and the poor assisted; nurses and linens furnished the suffering. Truly we are progressing with the tide of time. I sincerely trust that future years may still find you active in the cause. When the last of us who built the structure has passed into the great beyond, let one sweet thought be passed—charity."

Officers and Charter Members

In the group of portraits above are the present officers and the three surviving members of the Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent society:

President—Mrs. Joseph Lohman.
Vice President—Mrs. Isidor Lehman.
Secretary—Mrs. Louis Heilbroner.
Treasurer—Mrs. Ralph Clark.
Surviving Charter Members—Mrs. M. Lamley, Mrs. S. Freiburger, Mrs. E. Rosenthal.

MURDER TRIAL IN DENVER.

GERTRUDE GIBSON PATTERSON.

The trial of beautiful Gertrude Gibson Patterson, accused of the murder of her husband, is now in progress in Denver, Col. Mrs. Patterson will plead self-defence, alleging that her husband attempted to take her life. That the quarrel was over a suit for alienation of Mrs. Patterson's affections, which the young husband, it is said, contemplated bringing against a wealthy man from Chicago and that the killing resulted from Patterson's refusal to drop the affair, will be the contention of the State.

Fried Oysters.

When frying oysters, select good sized ones, wash and drain thoroughly, laying them on a soft cloth to dry. Have ready a quantity of fine, dry bread crumbs and slightly beaten eggs, to which a tablespoonful of warm water has been added. Just before cooking dip each oyster into the eggs and roll in the crumbs. A wire basket simplifies cooking, but if this is not at hand, drop carefully, not more than four at a time, into deep, smoking hot fat. As soon as well colored lift out, drain for a moment on soft paper and serve hot.

Plum Pudding Ice Cream.

For plum pudding ice cream scald a pint of milk, add to it four eggs beaten with one cupful and a half of sugar. Stir constantly over hot water until it forms a rich custard; strain, and set aside to cool. Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of cocoa in one-half of a cupful of boiling water and boil for a moment. Chill this and add to the cold custard with one tablespoonful of vanilla and one pint of cream. Shred sufficient citron to measure one-half of a cupful; steam one-half of a cupful of seeded raisins and one-quarter of a cupful of sultanas until plump and tender. Blanch and cut fine two dozen almonds; mix these, add just enough sherry to moisten, and let stand for an hour. Pour the mixed cream into the freezer and freeze until like a thick mush. Open, and work in the fruit, then finish freezing. In serving, garnish with whipped cream.

When You Can Get Tailored Hats of "Knox" and "Phipps" Style and Exclusiveness at Exactly Half Price

—Surely the proposition merits at least a few minutes of your time and a thorough investigation.

"Knox" and "Phipps" Tailored creations are too well known to women of fashion to need any introduction here, for they are generally conceded to be among the most exclusive and most becoming in the land.

We now offer you unrestricted choice of the season's best effects from these two famous millinery creators at exactly half price.

PATTERN HATS—

Exquisite and Exclusive—At a Clear Saving of One-Half

They were good enough to be used as "show pieces" by one of America's foremost jobbing houses, catering to the finest trade. They passed muster before the critical eyes of millinery experts. They were considered the "cream of the cream" of all the new Winter models. So, you can readily imagine that they are really exceptional in beauty, exclusiveness and becomingness and approaching perfection as closely as anything produced by human hands and brains can.

On November 1st, a brief half month ago, these very pattern hats were on display at the wholesale opening of Winter styles where they elicited many an "Ah" and "Oh" of genuine admiration. Now we offer them to you at a clear saving of one-half.

COME AND SEE HOW BEAUTIFUL ARE THE STYLES, HOW EXCLUSIVE THE MODELS AND HOW LOW THE PRICES. YOU WILL BE GLAD YOU DID.

FAMOUS GILSEY HOUSE PASSING

Gathering Place of Men Widely Noted to Be Torn Down.

HAS UNIQUE HISTORY

New York, Nov. 23.—The Gilsey House is at the end of its distinguished career. Forty years ago it bore the proud title of "Broadway's handsomest hotel." Today the structure at Broadway and Twenty-ninth street is a weather-beaten wreck of one-time grandeur, haunted by ghosts of a past which is interwoven with the city's history.

At last the edict has gone forth that the old hotel must go. It will be torn down and on its site will rise a lofty building of the most modern type.

The house was built in 1869, and a year later was thrown open to the public under the management of Col. James H. Breslin, a noted boniface of that day, and Henry Gilsey.

New Yorkers were immensely proud of their new hotel. Its great lobby, with lofty ceiling and gorgeous decorations was hailed as the finest thing of the kind in the world. In every structural respect the Gilsey in its proud youth was a model of comfort and a triumph of elegance. Its fame spread east and west and far across seas wherever hotels were known or personal luxury was considered.

But hotels are like flowers—their full bloom is short lived. Now, when only forty-two years old, an age when man (Dr. Osler to the contrary notwithstanding) is in his prime, the Gilsey a feeble old veteran of a house, hopelessly decrepit and beyond an outside chance of redemption, must go. Its honored name will be added to the list that includes the Fifth Avenue, the Westminster (where the late King Edward of England stopped when as Prince of Wales he paid this country a visit), the Ashland, the Everett, the St. Charles, the Clarendon, the Putnam, the Belvedere and the Sinclair.

New York's old timers, who tenderly remember the days of the Gilsey's glory, are exchanging reminiscences today wherever they meet, telling anecdotes of the famous salesmen, the big politicians, the noted sports and the celebrated actors who made their headquarters at the Gilsey.

They are telling also of the Gilsey bar—where the most lavish of free lunches were served, and where world-famed connoisseurs of all things drinkable formed the regular patronage. Gilsey port was the table talk of two continents. For a time the old Sinclair bar challenged the Gilsey's claim of supremacy in this particular wine, and the rival managements ransacked the cellars of Europe for the choicest brands. Thousands of dollars were lost and won on wagers among the connoisseurs, but in the end—so the old-timers say—Gilsey port triumphed.

Among the first patrons of the house was Al Smith, the noted sporting man and stakeholder for big prize ring events. It was in 1870 that Al Smith took possession of his room at the Gilsey. He remained there until his death in 1909. He was the recognized head of the "Old Guard," that band of devoted Gilseyites who positively refused to desert the old house. It was in 1904, when the hotel was in the midst of legal difficulties and ordered closed.

"We won't leave," announced Al Smith, the leader.

"Then I'm afraid you'll freeze," replied the manager. "We dump the fires tonight."

But the "Old Guard" stood firm. It was midwinter, but they held the fort for two long weeks—shivering, but unconquered. Throughout the period of siege, candles, captured in a foray upon the steward's department, gave them their only light. In the end they won. The hotel resumed business under new management.

Smith made the great lobby his office and reception room, and he became as much a part of it as the fine oil paintings on its walls. It was a store house of old prints of race horses, fighters and blooded dogs, and the trophies and mementoes of events famous in the sporting history of the country.

Fire in the hotel destroyed much of Al Smith's wonderful collection, and to the end of his life he mourned the loss.

In that same fire Magician Herrmann's tame duck, the family pet, came to a tragic and untimely end.

Commodore Vanderbilt was a frequent visitor at the Gilsey, and so was President Arthur. Jean and Edouard de Reszke made it their New York home and used to say that its big, high ceilinged bedrooms had no rivals for comfort in the whole world.

Noted actors foregathered nightly in its lobby. Pete Dailey loved the old house. His good stories were first told and his best songs were first hummed to the coterie of choice spirits that met in the Gilsey bar.

"It gives me luck to spring my new stuff in the good old house," Dailey was wont to say.

Big political deals were arranged at the Gilsey—deals that swung the state and made governors and presidents.

Big Wall street deals were planned in its private parlors that meant the winning or the losing of millions.

Three presidents—Cleveland, Harrison and Arthur made the Gilsey their headquarters when in this city.

For many years it was the rallying point for military and naval officers. Later it became the favorite stopping place for visiting southerners, and on its old books are to be found the names of all the noted men among them.

The house was built by Peter Gilsey, on land leased from the James W. Anderson estate. James H. Breslin was the first manager, and E. O. Roessle, one of a famous hotel family, succeeded him. Next the Seaboard Hotel company took the lease, but in 1904 John E. Olson purchased the entire property, land and building.

Finally it passed into the hands of Rube R. Fogel, the present owner, who, rumor says, paid close to $1,500,000 for it.

Facts About Indigestion

Test Sample of MI-o-na Free

If you have indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, dizziness or biliousness, no matter how long standing, Meyer Bros. Co. guarantees MI-O-NA stomach tablets to cure, or your money back.

Thousands are getting rid of indigestion by using MI-O-NA. Here is what one man writes: "I want to speak a good word for MI-O-NA and what it has done for me. I suffered something terrible with dyspepsia and indigestion. It was almost impossible for me to eat anything. Day after day I would go without eating. One day I read your advertisement in the Bangor Daily News. I got a box, and before it was gone I could sit down to the table and eat anything, thanks to MI-O-NA."—Herbert L. Patterson, Brewer (Bangor), Me.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets are made from the best prescription ever written—they cure to stay cured. They relieve distressed stomach in a few minutes. They are sold by Meyer Bros. Co. and druggists in every town in America. A large box of MI-O-NA costs but 50 cents. Test samples free from Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y. A post card will do.

LUMP SUGAR

Nature's Medicine for Children.

Every mother knows the difficulty of getting her children to take medicines, and appreciates the value of sugar as a means of rendering the dose palatable. A dash of peppermint on a lump of sugar will often cure a stomach ache more effectively than a dose of paregoric.

The most stubborn colds, sore throats and bronchial cough yield promptly to the healing action of a few drops of virgin oil of pine, taken with sugar. This is so pleasant to the taste that the little folks are eager for it, and so immediate is its action that any cold that is curable will be completely broken up by it inside of twenty-four hours.

Older folks can use oil of pine to equal advantage. It may be procured at any drug store in sealed half-ounce vials bearing the label of the Leach Chemical Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mixed with a couple of ounces of glycerine and a tumbler full of pure whisky, the contents of one of these vials will keep an entire family free from colds and bronchial troubles for a year.

IS THE WORLD GROWING BETTER?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at all druggists.

GERMANIAS ROLL IN CLASSY FORM

Schwartz, Doehrman and Sander Get Averages Over 200 Mark.

ECLIPSE LOSES OUT

With Schwartz, Doehrman and Sander rolling averages above the 200 mark, the Germanias trimmed the Eclipse five at the Metropolitan alleys and incidentally did some classy bowling, finishing with a total of more than 2,900 pins. This is the best total of the season.

The best bowling was done in the second game when the club grabbed a total of 1,022. In this game Doehrman rolled 247, Schwartz 224 and Sander 216. Schwartz and Sander each rolled a double in the first game and Kelsey picked one in the third.

In the first game the losers piled up a total that would have won an ordinary game and they made good scores all the way through but the Germanias had a good night and marched up toward the top of the per centage column.

The Kerr Murray team fell down in the Manufacturers' league after winning a couple of games last week and went to the bad again losing three straight to the Bass squad.

None of the scoring was high and there were no doubles but in the third game Toy tabbed 199 and this gave him the best average. Kampe rolled 187 for his best effort and this was the top mark of the evening and earned high average for him.

Echrich rolled 244 in his second game at St. Mary's alleys and the Shields five won on account of his mighty effort but he took a bad slump in his third game with a double century average in sight.

The other games of the series went to the Marquettes and Hoffman, with 202 for his high score, got the best average although Pearson steamed up after a bad start and finished with 225 taking the individual honors for his side.

In the Elk league games the Heads demonstrated that they are entitled to first place by winning three straight from the Antlers. Mohr and Fox had a warm fight for the average on the losing team and the latter nosed his man out by a single pin.

For the winners Charlie Niebergall tabbed 212 in his second game and nobody got near him for either the highest score or the best average.

Lankenau rolled 198 in the second game of the battle between the Victors and the Tots at the Empress alleys and this stood for the high water mark of the performance. Incidentally this score gave him high average for his club. F. Wambsgnass was the best bowler for the Victors but his club lost two in three games.

Jack Aubrey starred in the games between the City Coal Supply company and the Fort Wayne Roofers in the First Brunswick league with a high score of 239 in the last game but he fell nine pins shy of a double. Eddie Sander tabbed an even double and was second high man. Scoring on the losing team was low and Zollinger's 185 was top mark.

In the second league the Edmunds Electrics easily disposed of the Troy Laundry five, winning three in a row. All of the winning team members worked in good form and Quinn got high average but was only seventeen points better than the low man. Koenig was high for the laundrymen.

NO MANAGER FOR ZANESVILLE TEAM

None Will Be Selected Until New Board of Directors is Named.

WHEELER AFTER JOB

Zanesville, Ohio, Nov. 23.—No manager has been selected for the Zanesville club of 1912 and none will be until the new board of directors is elected and has had a chance to consider the applicants for Joe Raidy's place.

This election will not take place until after the first of January and it is likely that it will be followed by a number of changes as the men in charge of the affair of a base ball club in this city have so many tribulations that few people are loyal enough to give their time to the duties required of the board.

President C. U. Shryock has had rather a turbulent time during his connection with the game and although he succeeded in carrying the club through without a deficit after accepting it when it was over $3,000 in the hole, it is not certain that he will want to perform the service again, although he is the most likely man for the presidency.

There are no candidates for the place and the honor is generally thrust upon somebody and enough persuasive power used to prevent him from shunting it over to somebody else.

Sentiment here favors Hugo Swartling, and his name is Hugo, although a South Bend dopester sent it out Fred the other day when he made positive announcement that the place had been given to him.

He is a little bit disgruntled because he did not advance this year, which is the best he has ever had with the bat. Heretofore it has been conceded that if he could hit he would go to the majors. Last season he hit and he escaped both the draft and the sales.

Zanesville wants to retain him because he is young and if there is a fault that is keeping him in class B ball it can easily be overcome and in time he will be a valuable man. To keep him it will probably be necessary to give him the management and the increased salary that goes with the berth.

Eddie Wheeler wants the job, but he is not being seriously considered. His row with Bert Annis, followed by a disagreement with Louis D. Smith, who are the only two owners he ever worked for in the league, have not aided his cause with the Central league magnates. The fact that after his resignation from the Terre Haute club he made public all the secrets he had obtained in a confidential relationship with the owner, brought about another slump in his stock.

There are plenty of men who want the job and when Joe Raidy finds he can not obtain his release without a money consideration he may wheel back into line and seek the place again. He kept his club in the running last season until it was weakened by the sale of his players and his record here is plenty good enough to sustain him through another season if he wants to return.

Our neckwear stock was never so complete and attractive as now. Ask to see the newest things in knitted silk ties.

HUSTLING MANAGER OF FRIAR TEAM

CARL J. SUEDHOFF.

Much of the success of the present season of the Friar football team is due to the hustling and managerial ability of Carl J. Suedhoff, who has had charge of the business end of the game since the present schedule was started.

Although he is taking his first flight in his present realm he has shown good judgment in all of his bookings and if good weather is supplied for the Thanksgiving battle with Notre Dame the balance will be on the right side when the books are closed.

In the selection and booking of clubs and in all of the details of his position the youthful manager has displayed marked ability and he hopes to close the year without a deficit. This is all the club expects of the team as the organization is perfectly satisfied with an even break.

MANAGER MUST NOT BE GROUCH

Jimmy Isaminger, the baseball editor of the Philadelphia North American, read a dispatch from Pittsburg in which the writer declared it would be "folly to ask Tommy Leach anything about his chances of managing the Cincinnati Reds next season." This struck Isaminger as decidedly humorous and he hammered out the following dope regarding some of these high strung artists:

"So it is folly on the part of a baseball reporter to approach such an awesome being as the Pittsburg players! We can picture Mr. Leach rising with all the imperiousness and dignity that one of 5 feet 4 inches can command and sweeping the poor word painter away with a gesture, 'Get thee gone, I refuse to be bored.'

"It is rather odd that anybody ever thought of rolling him into a job at the head of a club worth $200,000 or more. Baseball has changed and today a manager is a public character just like the governor, the mayor, the clerk of the court of quarter sessions, or the wine agent. If he hasn't the ability to distribute his hand around a crowd after a game, he might as well get out.

"All amusement enterprises must depend on the press for success. Baseball's closest ally is the press, and if the game and club owner profit by the connection, it in turn helps the manager and Mr. Leach. Mr. Leach is drawing about ten times as much as an ordinary coalcart driver because the newspapers nurtured baseball from a waif into a husky giant.

"If it were not for baseball Mr. Leach might be ambassador to the Court of St. James or the new president of the Chinese republic, and then again he might be holding some portfolio where the wage scale was not much above the $10 a week mark, and where he would have to find his own pick and shovel. Mr. Leach would have to gamble on the two extremes.

"Mr. Leach is not modern. He belongs to the old plug-ugly school. He couldn't adapt himself to the changed conditions in baseball. Perhaps he is unaware of any change. Baseball to him is merely trying to get three hits a game and drawing the semi-monthly check.

"The Leach class won't long survive. In ten years it will have been wiped out altogether and it will be a boon to the game when it comes.

"While the Leaches are fast vanishing, yet there are still a few managers in big league baseball who should take a correspondence course on how to behave when being cornered by a baseball reporter who is being sent by his managing editor to use up space to boom baseball his paper can readily sell for advertising at a rate of 25 cents per agate line."

Is Making the Same Mistake That Harley Parker Made a Year Ago.

DIDN'T LAND PLAYER

Harry Arndt, since his appointment to the position of manager of the South Bend team, has been scouring the semi-pro fields of Chicago for talent and unless he changes his tactics he will probably fall into the same error that Harley Parker did at Grand Rapids a year ago.

Experience has shown that the semi-professional ranks of Chicago has no players of class enough to jump right in and play in the Central league. Terre Haute had a few of them last season and they all lack the experience and ability and when they stack up against the old heads in the organizations their want of knowledge is glaring.

Now and then a good man is picked up. Wickland is a graduate of the Chicago lots and he is a fast little fellow who can cover a lot of ground and will eventually learn a deal about base running if he applies himself, but he would not have been retained for the year if Parker had had enough money to buy another man. He could not have afforded the time to develop him.

As the matter stood there was nobody to take his place and he became a good asset before the season closed and he ought to be better next year under a tutor like Punch Knoll. Arndt had five players in view when he went to Chicago.

Two of the men are free agents, while the others will be forced to obtain their releases from teams in leagues of lower classification than the Central. A shortstop, an outfielder, second baseman, catcher and pitcher are included in the quintet. One of the infielders and the outfielder have records in the batting line above the .300 mark.

Harley is the name of the outfielder whom Arndt failed to land because he had signed to play with Dayton.

Arndt made the rounds of the various haunts of Harley and finally located him. Thereupon Manager Arndt accosted the young man with the words: "You're just the man I want to see."

Harley asked the wherefore, and Harry responded he wanted to sign him for his South Bend club. "You're too late," the outfielder said, "I signed with Dayton two days ago."

Manager Arndt regrets losing Harley for two reasons. He believes he missed a valuable player, and thinks Dayton, one of the opponents in the next Central league race, gained a man who will be able to fill "Deerfoot" Spencer's place, and will be consequently strengthened.

DID GEORGE COHAN GET BUNKED?

George M. Cohan, who paid $250 for Frank Baker's world series home run bat at the Fred Knowles benefit in New York recently, is enjoying the same sort of satisfaction that comes to a collector of colonial period furniture who has purchased a made-to-order antique without realizing the deception. It's about as good as 100 to 1 that the world series bats are locked up with the Baker family jewels, at Trapee, Maine. They will never get away from their owner. He may be in another world series, and certainly will be in another championship race. And those bats he used in the series are the only set he will have any confidence in from now until they are broken in the service.

Somewhere someone is treasuring a Ty Cobb bat bought much as Cohan got the Baker bingling stick. When the Sam Crane benefit was given, a couple of years since, Cobb played on one of the teams. Mathewson pitched part of the game and a ball autographed by him was to be auctioned. It was suggested that one of Cobb's bats, autographed, would bring a good price. Tyrus stepped into the club house and picked up one of the New York team's spare sticks—the game was played on the Highlanders' field—wrote his name on it, and the bat was sold. The purchaser was satisfied, Cobb had all of his pet bats left, and Crane got a neat addition to the benefit money.

FRIARS MAY GET THE CHAMP CLUB

Corby Hall Had Not Lost a Game in the Inter-Hall Struggles.

TODAY DECIDES IT

Members of the Friar football eleven and the membership of the club generally had their ears to the ground most of the afternoon listening for returns from the football game at Notre Dame which was of vast import because it decided the inter-hall championship at the university.

If the Corby squad got the victory the Friar eleven knew it was up against the champion team of the institution and that only the varsity eleven is superior in playing strength. With a victory to St. Joe, booked to oppose Corby today, the matter will be in doubt, as it will bring about a tie and the club will have to decides the differences later on.

Up to today Corby had not lost a game, having defeated both Brownson and Walsh, but it had not tackled St. Joe, which has lost only one of the struggles.

Pictures have been sent here of the members of the team and these indicate that the Friars will have a pretty beefy line to oppose in the game, but offensive play is one of the strong points of the Friar eleven and the men believe they can hold their own.

There will be practice Friday night at Princess rink and every member of the team is requested to report at the club rooms at 7:30 o'clock sharp with a pair of soft shoes to wear during the drill. Most of them will, of course, wear more than the soft shoes, but these are necessary.

Business Manager Suedhoff has just arranged for the rink for the night of practice and in view of the fact that he had to hit the club treasury a severe jolt to get the rink he wants every player to get out and get the benefit to be derived from the expenditure.

Another shipment of full dress and fancy vests just received at Patterson-Fletcher Co.

SPORTING NEWS IN TABLET FORM

Harry Arndt, new manager of the South Bend team, has signed 30 players for tryouts in the spring and with the exception of Charlie Bates and Buzz Wetzel all of them are recruits.

Bill Coughlin, former captain and third baseman of the Tigers, is negotiating for a big hotel in Scranton, Pa. He was a candidate for the management of the Jersey City team this fall.

Hal Chase has agreed to resign as manager of the New York Americans if Owner Frank Farrell will pay as much for playing first base as he did for leading the club and playing at the same time.

Bert Annis said after his return from San Antonio that he had recommended Eddie Wheeler to some magnate as manager for next season, but he could not recall who the man is he had boosted Eddie to.

Barney Oldfield, who was disqualified several years ago because he raced with Jack Johnson, is seeking reinstatement so he can enter the Vanderbilt cup race. The stewards are favorable and he may get back in the fold.

Connie Mack says that every ball player that stays in the game for ten years in the big leagues should have a nest egg of $16,000 laid away. Quite a few of them come short of that by several dollars, however.

Turner, the tow-headed veteran of the Cleveland Naps, who had it all his own way around third last summer, will have to fight to hold his job next year, for Harry Davis has a swarm of young blood coming that looks very good.

Vic Willis, who couldn't see baseball last spring on account of his hotel business at Newark, Del., has decided that the role of host is not as profitable as he imagined it might be and will get into the game again next season with an Eastern league club.

Grover Gilmore, the promising young outfielder on the White Sox training trip last spring, and who played such a sensational game last season for the Denver team, has been released to the Des Moines team and the deal has caused a lot of talk among the Denver fans. Gilmore is a great favorite there.

The wisdom of some of the club owners of the American league will undoubtedly be questioned if George Stovall is allowed to get out of the league to accept the management of the Toledo American association team. Stovall is too good a ball player to be allowed to drift into the minors, and there are several clubs who could use him to advantage.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

"THE GIRL IN THE TRAIN."

Latest of the Viennese Musical Successes Comes Tonight.

The newest vehicle of Viennese expression in musical comedy will be seen at the Majestic tonight in Charles Dillingham's production of "The Girl in the Train." The book is by Victor Leon, the celebrated librettist of "The Merry Widow" and the music by Leo Fall, the famous composer of "The Dollar Princess." The story scintillates with humor and deals with the domestic troubles of a young couple which are aired in the divorce court. The jealousy of the wife is aroused when she hears that her husband while on a railway journey had given up his compartment on a sleeping car to a pretty actress who could not secure a reservation on the train.

The score is tuneful and has that charming swish and swing to it that delights the heart of the music lover; it is given on a big scale by an augmented orchestra. An unusual feature is the presence of two prima donnas in the cast. Olga Steck, formerly of the Fritzi Scheff Opera company, as "the actress," and Violet Seaton, who won fame in "The Goddess of Liberty" as the wife. The large chorus is composed of pretty girls whose exceptional vocal talents have been praised.

RUSSIAN DANCERS.

Have Mastered the English Language Since Last in America.

When the Russian dancer, Mikail Mordkin and his associates, were making their record breaking flight across the country last year, their English words and expressions were few and far between. This season, however, not only Mordkin, but many of the other members of the big company to dance at the Majestic on Friday night have a pretty fluent command of our tongue.

It was while appearing in London this past summer that the dancers put the finishing touches on their working knowledge of English. All of them, of course, speak with a Russian accent. Yet there is also a trace of American intonation in their English. They began to learn it here, and the final study in London somehow did not give the pronunciation and tone of the subjects of King George.

Mlle. Siedlow does not, however, speak English. Mlle. Siedlowa has never before danced off the continent.

There is one member of the Mordkin All-Star Imperial ballet who has spoken English from childhood. He is Veronine Westoff, character dancer. "Westoff" is nothing more or less than the English "West" with a Slavic ending. Mr. Westoff, born and raised in St. Petersburg, comes of a London theatrical family which years ago moved to the Russian capital and later became so thoroughly Russianized that the "off" was added to the name.

"THE GIGGLE CLASS"

Will Have Two Sessions at the Majestic Saturday.

Billy B. Van, the funniest chap this side of laughland, comes to this theater Saturday matinee and night. Everybody knows Billy chiefly because he is so chuck full of giggles that he laughs his way into their hearts before they are really aware of his presence.

That is why Billy B. Van is popular. Everyone is apt to look upon life through blue hued glasses occasionally. But as Billy dosn't believe in the blues, grouch, grumps or peevishness he has elected himself as the official dispeller of these comman ailments. He's a compounded tonic of laughter.

Billy has a brand new musical comedy called "A Lucky Hoodoo," a company of fifty, including the favorite Beaumont sisters, and a real beauty chorus. Those who enjoy the light and frivolous are elected honorary members of the "giggle classes" at each performance, each audience constituting one class.

RASTETTER'S FAIRY THEATER

Today is base ball day at the Fairy, where the greatest base ball battle in the history of the game will be shown in moving pictures. All the celebrated players are in this picture—Mathewson, Bender, Alexander, Coombs, Meyers and some thirty or forty more. It promises to be a real treat to every one, for the plays made and the players represented will go down in the history of base ball as the greatest ever and be long remembered by all who are luck enough to see this attraction.

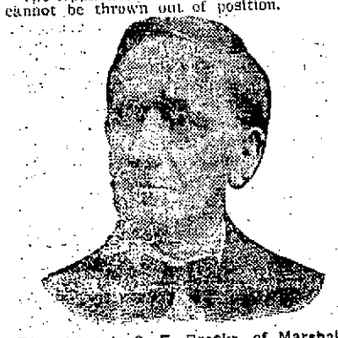
Don't Wear A Truss

Ten Reasons Why You Should Send for My New Appliance.

I Send It On Trial.

It is absolutely the only Appliance of the kind on the market today, and in it are embodied the principles that inventors have sought after for years.

The Appliance for retaining the rupture cannot be thrown out of position.



The above is C. E. Brooks, of Marshall, Mich., who has been curing Rupture for over 30 years. If Ruptured write him today.

Being an air cushion of soft rubber it clings closely to the body, yet never blisters or causes irritation.

Unlike the ordinary so-called pads, used in trusses it is not cumbersome or ungainly.

It is small, soft and pliable; and positively cannot be detected through the clothing.

The soft pliable bands holding the Appliance do not give one the unpleasant sensation of wearing a harness.

There is nothing about it to get foul, and when it becomes soiled it can be washed without injuring it in the least.

There are no metal springs in the Appliance, to torture one by cutting and bruising the flesh.

All of the material of which the Appliances are made is of the very best that money can buy, making it a durable and safe Appliance to wear.

My reputation for honesty and fair dealing is so thoroughly established by an experience of over thirty years of dealing with the public, and my prices are so reasonable, my terms so fair, that there certainly should be no hesitancy in sending free coupon today.

Remember, I send my Appliance on trial to prove what I say is true. You are to be the judge. Fill out free coupon below and mail today.

PAY NO HEED TO QUARANTEE

Turkish Suspects Leave Sealed House; Bring Friends Back.

LURE OF FREE MEALS

Constantinople, Nov. 23.—The complications which attend the work of a medical officer of health in Constantinople are well illustrated by the story of an incident during the cholera epidemic, which still continues here, though less actively than in the summer.

A case of cholera was reported in a house inhabited by a corps of volunteer firemen. This is a trade peculiar to Constantinople, in which the occupation of pilfering and salvage are ingeniously combined. The firemen usually live together in one tenement.

On hearing of the case the municipal doctor immediately went to the house, found that the patient lived in a crowded little building with nineteen of his comrades, and ordered that he should be taken to a hospital. He further ordered that all of the inmates should be confined to the house and strictly isolated. The doors were accordingly sealed and gend armes posted outside to stop anyone from going in.

The nineteen quarantined firemen were thoroughly disgusted with this order of imprisonment, and fourteen of them climbed out of the windows at the back and stole away. The medical officer, when he called next day, was furious at their escape, but could do nothing. He directed that food and drink and also tobacco should be sent in at the expense of the municipality for the five who stayed behind, and went away again.

His amazement was considerable when he called again next day to find that the number of inmates of the sealed-up house had increased during the night from five to twenty-seven. Explanations were demanded and, under pressure, it was found that the fourteen fugitives had heard from the five who had stayed of the free food and tobacco, which seemed likely to convert the period of quarantine into a holiday of idleness and plenty. They had, therefore, returned by the same windows through which they had escaped and had further brought with them eight friends anxious to experience the benefits of medical treatment on such intelligent lines.

The doctor, however, was a man of retaliatory disposition. Calling in the assistance of a squad of regular firemen, professional rivals and foes of the volunteer Tolounbadjis, he had the twenty-seven stripped and sprayed liberally with pungent and noisome disinfectants. They were then attired in ugly and harsh-textured garments, provided by the municipal authorities, and were sent under police escort to a lonely and inhospitable isolation camp to complete their quarantine under conditions calculated to make them realize the unwisdom of evading the beneficient attentions of the corporation, or, having done so, of returning to them again.

SAVED CHILD FROM DEATH.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, croup and sore lungs, it's the most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

OLSER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Gray Hair Is First Sign of Age, Harmless Remedy Restores to Natural Color.

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race.

One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't look old before your time. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today and see what an improvement it will make in the appearance of your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

A Warm Bathroom

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Every mother should be careful that the children take their baths in a warm room. The chill of a cold room is dangerous after coming out of the hot water.

A Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater brings bathroom or bedroom to just the degree of warmth you want in five or ten minutes. All you have to do is to touch a match.

The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one filling and is always ready for use. You can move it anywhere it is needed. There is no waste of fuel and heat warming unoccupied rooms. Just the heat you want, when and where you want it.

The Perfection is fitted with an automatic-locking flame spreader that prevents the wick being turned high enough to smoke and is easy to remove and drop back when cleaning.

Drums finished either in turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel; light and ornamental, yet strong and durable—suitable for any room in any house.

Dealers everywhere; or write to any agency of the Standard Oil Company (Incorporated)

The Even Heat Makes All Rooms Comfortable

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater is so perfect in construction that fire and heat keeps all night, even with cheapest soft coal. When the draft is opened in the morning the fuel put in the night before will burn for two or three hours.

No other stove will give these results—fire never goes out and the rooms are kept at even temperature day and night.

COLE'S HOT BLAST—for Hard Coal—SAVES HALF

The perfect control of the drafts, the slow economical combustion and the large, sensitive, radiating surface makes it the most economical and best Hard Coal stove made.

Cole's Hot Blast is the modern heater and will save its cost in fuel every winter. Burns Soft Coal, Slack, Lignite, Hard Coal, Wood and lighter fuel.

Select the size you want now while stock is complete.

Price $12.00 and upwards—according to style and size.

Madam—

Here is one of the cows which supplies milk to your neighbors—the people who use Van Camp's.

This cow won the Van Camp cup, which we offered to encourage the breeding of high-grade cows. Milk from such cows, fed in America's best dairying sections, will cost you less than any milk you get from mongrel cows.

And it comes to you pasteurized—free from germs. It is the finest milk which this country produces—the equal of any Swiss milk.

Thick as Cream

Right at the dairy, in a moderate heat, we evaporate two-thirds of the water. This is done in a copper vacuum, in the cleanest sort of way.

We add nothing whatever to the milk. We take out nothing but water. Use it as it comes to you and you have thick cream—28 per cent solids, 8 per cent butter fat. Put back the water and you have fresh, rich milk, just as it came from the cow, save for the sterilization.

Rich Milk Dishes

Van Camp's Milk, used in cooking, produces superlative dishes. The flavor is such as you never get in any milkman's milk. It is the flavor of whole, rich milk.

Milkman's milk separates. Milk dipped from a can is never whole-milk. By the time it gets to your cooking it is rarely more than a half-milk. So many people never know what rich milk dishes whole-milk makes. You will know when you use Van Camp's.

Utterly Germless

This milk is pasteurized, as all milk should be. There's not a germ of any kind in it. Think what it means for all table uses to have milk free from germs.

You can buy, if you wish, a month's supply at a time. Then you have milk and cream for any purpose—all you want at any time. You have none left over—none to waste—for the opened can keeps till you use it up.

And the milk, remember, is the finest milk that high-bred cows produce. It is always the same.

Milk Bills Cut in Two

The curious fact is that this ideal milk costs less than milkman's milk. We save you the cost of the daily delivery, which means about 4 cents per quart. And we save you all the waste. The use of Van Camp's, in most homes, cuts milk bills right in two.

We milk 30,000 cows daily to supply folks who want this milk. And no people in the world get better milk than they get every day.

Milk Fresh From These Cup-Winning Cows

Costs Less Than Your Milkman's Milk

The 16-oz. can—a full pint of Van Camp's—costs 10 cents. The 6-oz. can costs 5 cents. That's with two-thirds of the water evaporated. Your grocer gets it direct from our nearest dairy.

NAMED HIS OWN PALL BEARERS

G. J. Byer Laid in Grave by Six of His Old Comrades.

B. L. E. WINS IN IMPORTANT CASE

Court Decides That Policy of Missing Man is Forfeited.

George John Byer, who was buried in Lindenwood this afternoon, the funeral being held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Byer, of 1909 South Hanna street, named the men who should act as pall-bearers at his funeral and each one of them officiated in that capacity today. They were John Kleemeier, William Reiter, William Hildebrand, A. N. Hughes, Henry Kortum and C. H. Garriot, all members of the axle hammer gang at the Bass blacksmith shop, which was shut down today on account of the funeral. The deceased was employed at the Bass blacksmith shops a number of years and several months before he was taken sick he spoke to his shopmates about his funeral, predicting that it would take place in a few months, and requesting them to act as his pall-bearers and they promised. Before young Byer died he spoke to his father also about the matter, requesting that the men named be the pall-bearers.

GOVERNOR PLANS REPAYMENT.

Has Sympathy for Children Who Took Apple Prizes.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—Governor Marshall says he will seek, in some way, to give recompense to the pupils of the State School for Feeble Minded Youth, at Fort Wayne, for the loss of $234.50 received as prizes at the Indiana apple show. The attorney-general, in an opinion to the superintendent of the school, held the money should be regarded as an earning of the institution and paid into the state treasury, as other earnings. Superintendent Carroll, of the school had planned to use the money for something permanent for the school—a piano or something of the kind."

"No doubt the attorney-general placed the correct construction on the law," said the governor, "but it's pretty hard for those children, who helped raise the apples that took the prizes, to see their prize money go into the state's treasury, to be lost among millions of other dollars. The school has a head orchardist, but most of the work in the orchards is done by the inmates. The apples seemed to them like their apples." The governor does not know just what steps he will take in the matter.

BROTHERHOOD WON CASE.

Ohio Courts Settle Important Legal Question.

A decision anxiously awaited by attorneys throughout the state and which is of general interest to persons carrying fraternal insurance was rendered by the supreme court at Columbus yesterday in the case of Margaret McGovern vs. the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, et al. B. W. McGovern, husband of the plaintiff, disappeared from his home in Cleveland in 1900, and has not since been heard from. At the time of his disappearance he held a life insurance policy in the brotherhood. From 1900 to 1907 his wife paid the dues in the brotherhood, when she demanded that the insurance policy be paid. McGovern being legally dead. The brotherhood resisted payment, alleging that an amendment to the by-laws provided that no policies be paid in case of disappearance. The case was fought through the Cuyahoga common pleas and circuit courts, in both of which the brotherhood won. The supreme court upheld the decisions of the lower court, establishing a precedent in the matter of fraternal insurance.

FOOT CAUGHT IN ELEVATOR.

Ima Cory Disobeys Orders and is Painfully Hurt.

While riding on a freight elevator at the Bass foundry this morning, Ima Cory had the heal of his left foot caught between the floor of the elevator and a cross piece on the wall of the shaft and all that prevented a fatality was the breaking of the shoe strings, allowing the shoe to come off the foot. As it was, however, the heel was badly squeezed and the ankle was sprained. Dr. A. J. Kesler, who was called to attend Cory, says no bones were broken. There is a sign on the elevator door, warning employes against riding on it and they have verbal instructions of that kind also. In spite of this, Cory preferred riding to walking up the stairs and his injuries are the result.

PENNSY SHAREHOLDERS

Multiply at Rapid Rate—72,783 Will Get Dividends.

Figures made public yesterday by the Pennsylvania show that the number of shareholders of the company is increasing at the rate of more than 1,000 a month, the increase in the last three months reaching a total of 3,023 and 6,263 in the last six months. The total number of stockholders who will participate in the quarterly dividend payable next Wednesday is 722,783, a new high record, compared with 69,760 who received the August dividend and 66,250 at the May distribution. The period covers the time of the absorption of the $41,000,000 stock and allotment made last spring, this being a 10 per cent increase, while the gain in stockholders has been 9.4 per cent.

FOOT PIERCED BY NAIL.

Wound Becomes Affected and Threatening.

John Michel, a machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, was taken to St. Joseph hospital this morning, with a badly effected foot. About a week ago the member was pierced by a nail and was not considered serious. The wound became affected, however, and is now quite threatening. An effort is being made to prevent serious blood poisoning.

INCREASE IN TONNAGE.

According to reports from Pittsburg there was a gratifying increase in the tonnage of freight which passed through that city, both east and westbound. This increase was fully 8 per cent. last week over the business of the preceding week and about 5 per cent. over the corresponding week of last year. Referring to this matter the Pittsburg Post yesterday said: "Much of the increase was due to larger coal shipments, precipitated by the cold snap, although shipments of iron and steel products, too, were considerably larger. Local traffic officials and representatives report quite generally a better feeling among shippers.

BROUGHT SOME DEER HOME.

Engineers E. Janney and M. C. Wolford, of the Pennsylvania, who were with a party of hunters in the wilds of Wisconsin two or three weeks, returned home last night, accompanied by three deer. When they arrived at the camping place they found a few inches of snow on the ground and plenty of small deer. They were after big ones, however, and let many opportunities to shoot small ones pass. Two days later there came a snow storm which made walking almost impossible, the snow being hip deep, and the hunter's decided to not look for big game, but to take anything they could get. The result was the "limit" of small deer so far as numbers are concerned and they had to quit hunting.

NEW TIME CARD SOON.

The Wabash will put a new time card into effect December 2, which will effect three or four trains. One of them will be No. 9, westbound, which will be a little later than at present. Passenger train No. 6 will not go from Fort Wayne to Montpelier and thence to Toledo, as at present, but will go direct from Peru to Toledo. No. 14, now running straight through from Fort Wayne to Toledo, will after the time card has been installed, go by the way of Montpelier.

SUFFERED A RELAPSE.

E. L. Hursh, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, a sufferer from Bright's disease, has suffered a relapse after making good progress towards recovery and yesterday was compelled to return to St. Joseph hospital. He left that institution the latter part of last week, after being there three or four weeks, and was preparing to go to Plymouth to spend the convalescent period, when he was taken worse.

BISSELL PROMOTED.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 23.—Ernest R. Bissell, for the last three years superintendent of the Peoria division of the L. E. and W., with headquarters in this city, has been promoted and December 1 will take the superintendency of the Western division of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad. C. C. Arnold, who comes from the Sandusky division, will succeed him here.

OUT OF THE HOSPITAL.

A. Young, an employe of the Pennsylvania company, who had been ill with typhoid fever at the St. Joseph hospital about eight weeks, was removed to his home, at the corner of Runion avenue and Wheeler street, yesterday. He has not fully recovered, but is making progress in that direction and will be able to resume work in a few weeks.

WILL CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

The Pennsylvania department of the Y. M. C. A. at Pittsburg will celebrate anniversary day at the Pitcairn repair shops next Sunday afternoon and the company is preparing to handle several thousand people to and from Pitcairn, giving them free transportation. William E. Andrews, auditor of the United States treasury in Washington, will be the chief speaker.

MOVING HIS FAMILY HERE.

R. E. Harrington, claim agent for the Pennsylvania, has leased the house at 108 Baker street and is fitting it up preparatory to bringing his family here from Chicago. Mr. Harrington has occupied his present office about two months.

MAY SETTLE IN WEST.

Fireman G. R. Maxill has taken an indefinite leave of absence from the Pennsylvania and has gone west. He has in contemplation, it is said, engaging in fruit growing or farming and may decide to remain west. He has relatives in that business in one of the western states.

W. G. BUTLER TRANSFERRED.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—Walter G. Butler, formerly of Indianapolis, who for nearly eight years has been at Salem, Ohio, as claim agent for the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, has been transferred to the office of John L. Rupe, of Richmond, solicitor for the company.

ATTENDING SUPERVISORS' MEETING.

C. L. Bartholome, signal supervisor of the Western division of the Pennsylvania, is attending a meeting of all the signal supervisors of the lines west of Pittsburg in the office of Chief Signal Engineer W. McC. Grafton.

FACE BURNED BY RIVET.

B. C. Meyer, a rivet heater at the Pennsylvania boiler shops, suffered a burn on his right cheek Tuesday when he was struck by a hot rivet. He has been unable to work since the accident.

P. F. SMITH HERE.

P. F. Smith, jr., master mechanic of the Columbus division of the Pennsylvania Southwest system, is in the city today on business with the local officials.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

H. J. Yergy is in Toledo today on business for the Pennsylvania company.

Supt. W. M. Wardrop continues to improve after a severe illness and will soon be out.

Pennsylvania Engineers William M. Barden and William Dexter are sick and off duty.

A. Peterson, C. E. Kidd, J. J. Haas, C. R. Botoroff and R. L. Scherer, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

W. M. Ridenour, employed in the tin department of the Pennsylvania shops two months, has accepted a position in a town in New York and resigned his position today.

Engineers C. C. Burchard, K. Kruse and W. H. Wyman and Fireman R. R. Calendar, of the Pennsylvania, who had been sick and off duty for some days, reported for work this morning.

Engineer J. C. Polhamus, who duties are to test newly repaired engines before they are put into service, has recovered from a sprained ankle and resumed work after an absence of ten days.

Mrs. Daniel Petgen, wife of Foreman Dan Petgen, of the Pennsylvania flue and tin shops, will visit in Columbia City for a few days.

Division Storekeeper W. H. Hurst, of the Wabash, is with Purchasing Agent Frier on the Buffalo division today. Mr. Frier will spend the week end on the division with Mr. Hurst.

A Hupmobile standing at the Lake Erie depot, and owned by the Randall Garage company, was struck by a taxicab yesterday afternoon, resulting in smashing the front wheels of the Hup. There were no injuries.

Elimination of grade crossings at Cleveland is to be part of the work of the Pennsylvania next year. It is announced that the company has in contemplation improvements of this kind at Cleveland that will cost $2,063,000.

Harry E. Woodworth, traveling freight agent for the Southern road, is making his maiden business trip in this territory and called upon the local freight agents and a number of shippers today.

Oscar Lentz, Oscar Smith, Victor Vrooman and R. H. Miller, employes of the Wabash shops, were initiated into Power Pipefitters, No. 81, at the regular meeting in Elite hall Wednesday evening. Following the reception of the new members a smoker and social session were held.

A force of six men, under F. W. Ranney, started on a night shift at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop last night. The gang will turn out iron slabs and will be kept on duty until sufficient material is on hand to meet the orders. The gang will work nights for probably two weeks.

The rate sheets of the western roads do not contain the name of Brooklyn, N. Y. Agents are instructed by the Pennsylvania to sell New York tickets to all passengers to Brooklyn and the latter has been practically wiped from the face of the earth so far as western railroads have to do with the matter.

"D-M-F"

Cures Rheumatism

Trial Package Sent Free, Proves Its Extraordinary Results

ONLY an internal remedy will cure rheumatism. "D-M-F" is a scientific preparation of remarkable effectiveness,—containing ingredients such as only the most studious and able specialists themselves might prescribe. It contains no injurious drugs; it is safe. Every box carries the statement of analysis made by one of the foremost chemists of this country. Its results in a few days' time convince you of its extraordinary power, eliminating the rheumatic humor from the blood gradually, naturally and promptly. "D-M-F" is for rheumatism, lumbago, and neuralgia, no matter whether chronic for 30 years or merely slight.

C. W. Beson, M. D., one of the most prominent physicians in Oklahoma, known for his success in treating rheumatism says after having treated 60 cases of rheumatism within 6 months:

"The cases for this test were selected from the various chronic forms commonly known as incurables, and all forms of the disease have yielded to the D. M. F. treatment. Convinced that with D. M. F. there are no incurable forms of the disease, I am now ready to stake my professional reputation on my ability to cure all forms of rheumatism with this treatment."

"D-M-F" is sold in tablets at drug stores, at 50 cents a box, or sent on receipt of price, by the D-M-F Medicine Co., 2715 Lincoln Avenue, Suite 136, Chicago, Ill. Send your name and address and get proofs of cures and a free trial package, which will prove to you how remarkable in results "D-M-F" really is.

"THERE IS SO MUCH GOOD IN THE WORST OF US—
AND THERE IS SO MUCH BAD IN THE BEST OF US
THAT IT WON'T DO FOR ANY OF US
TO TALK ABOUT THE REST OF US."

A Good Sentiment, Either for Society or Business

The "BIG STORE" has nothing but good to say of its competitors. They are a bright set of fellows, and when you can't find what you want at "headquarters," they will, any of them, treat you right.

But the "BIG STORE," with its forty-three years of history in Fort Wayne, is justified in believing it can serve you at least a little better than anybody else, and save you at least some money, whenever you have furniture or carpets to buy.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 23.—Wheat prices varied today almost wholly according to crop prospects in Argentine, where the harvest is now in progress. The opening was ⅝c lower to a shade up. May started at $1.00⅝ to $1.01, a loss of ¼@⅛c to a sixteenth advance, and sold as low as $1.00⅝@1.00¾.
Subsequently, optimistic statements regarding the winter crop in the United States tended to bring about lower prices. The close, however, was firm with May down ⅜c at $1.00½@1.00⅝.
Longs unloaded corn. May opened a shade lower to a like amount higher at 55¼c to 55⅝c and sank to 65c.
Afterward the market declined, owing to prospects of increased receipts. The close though was steady at 64⅞@65c for May, net loss of ⅜c.
Opening sales on the part of cash houses made oats easy. May started unchanged to 50⅛c and receded to 50c.
Provisions declined with hogs. Initial transactions were the same as last night to 15c down, with May delivery at $16.75 to $16.80 for pork, $9.60 to $9.62½ for lard and $8.80 to $8.82½ for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Nov. 23.—A reactionary tendency was apparent in the early trading in stocks today. The copper shares lost part of their recen Anaconda declining ¾ and Utah Copper and Amalgamated Copper ⅞.
Among the railroad issues Union Pacific with a loss of ¾ was heaviest. American Telephone lost a point and Third Avenue ⅝.
Stocks displayed a tendency to rally, but prices did not rise to yesterday's closing level. Southern stocks became strong in sympathy with Louisville & Nashville, which jumped 4¼ on a report that the capital stock was to be increased $40,000,000 to $100,000,000 with privilege of subscription to stockholders at par. Atlantic Coast Line advanced 2¾, Illinois Central 2 and Southern Railway preferred 1⅝. Sears-Roebuck improved 6½ to 145. Lackawanna opened 10 points lower and Texas Company broke to 76¾, the lowest of the year.
Speculative interests in stocks lagged and movements were narrow during the morning. Except for the Southern Railway stocks in which further advances were made, the list was inclined to sag, although losses were not large. Bonds were steady.

AWAY GOES ALL STOMACH MISERY

No Indigestion, Heartburn, Gas or Dyspepsia Five Minutes Later.

If you had some Diapepsin handy and would take a little now your stomach distress or Indigestion would vanish in five minutes and you would feel fine.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, out-of-order stomach before you realize it.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drug store waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disturbance. adv.

GIVEN FOR FIRST TIME IN INDIANA

Fort Wayne Consistory Exemplifies Twenty-Ninth Grade.

NEARING THE CLOSE

For the first time in the history of a Scottish Rite body in the state of Indiana, Fort Wayne Consistory today exemplified in full ceremonial form the twenty-ninth grade of Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite—the Knight of St. Andrew, upon a class of candidates that numbered 146. The degree has heretofore both in this city and at Indianapolis, been communicated only, and much interest centered about its presentation upon an elaborate scale to the big class today.

The reunion of the Scottish Rite will came to a close this evening with the conferring of the thirty-second degree upon a class that is the largest ever received here with the single exception of the dedication class. Work was resumed at 9 o'clock this morning.

Grand Master Here.

The reunion banquet was held at the Scottish Rite cathedral at 6:30 o'clock last evening and was a very large gathering. Schlatter's orchestra played and Ronald Dawson presided as toastmaster.

The address to the class was delivered by W. S. Swintz, of South Bend, grand master of the Indiana Masonic grand lodge. The response for the class, given by Rev. Arthur J. Folsom, of Plymouth Congregational church, was declared by old members of the rite to have been one of the very finest and happiest efforts of the kind ever heard in this city. As Rev. Mr. Folsom resumed his seat the applause was so thunderous and so long continued that he was obliged to arise and bow his acknowledgments again and again.

New Class Organizes.

The new consistory class organized this morning by the election of Rev. A. J. Folsom as president, Dr. George Gillie as secretary and treasurer, and James H. Rose as historian. All the officers are from this city.

PICKS UP LONG-LOST WATCH.

Peru Man Found Valued Relic While Husking Corn.

Peru, Ind., Nov. 23.—While James Cover, of Allen township, was husking corn in James Clemens' field, near Macy, he found an open-faced gold watch that had been lost by Mr. Clemens eleven years ago. The watch was highly prized by Mr. Clemens, because it had been given him by the pupils of the Christian church Sunday school, he having been the musician for the school for a number of years. It was the first watch that Mr. Clemens ever owned. When found yesterday the case was as bright as it was the day it was bought, but the steel parts of the timepiece were so rusted that they are useless. Mr. Clemens will have new works put into the case.

WILL REPEAT IT TONIGHT.

Knights of Columbus Minstrels Give Fine Performance.

The minstrel performance by members of Fort Wayne council, Knights of Columbus, given last evening at the lodge rooms, drew an immense audience and scored a tremendous hit. Among the fun-makers were Maurice Niezer, Tom Hayes, George Ryan, M. Greven, M. Freiburger, A. Schoenbein, Amos Jockel, Carl Burlage and L. W. Reed, while Thomas Shovlin, Henry Roeger, George Sosenheimer, Thomas Woulfe, Clem Weber, M. F. Noll, Charles Bice and Julian Alter. The performance will be repeated this evening.

CITY BREVITIES.

State Bank Examiner W. C. Thomas is preparing to remove from Logansport to this city.

An auto owned by Dr. McKeeman and driven by a colored chauffeur, got beyond the driver's control on East Berry street yesterday afternoon and headed across the sidewalk for the display window in the Peoples' drug store. It was deflected in its course sufficiently to miss the plate glass and spend its force against an iron post in the doorway. Nobody was injured.

A slight blaze in the Paul E. Wolf mattress factory yesterday afternoon occasioned a loss of $25.

Congressman Cyrus Cline is among the visitors in the city attending the Scottish Rite reunion.

We sell all the good lines of overalls. Carters, Carhartts, Finks, and Cones Bros. Our price 75c. In the other stores they cost you $1.

LYRIC THEATER

The Lyric is showing a Rex today and night, entitled "The Price." It's a story as old as the Garden of Eden and as new as the latest divorce suit; a page of human history from Adam, to eternity; a tale of temptation, transgression, travail and tears. Pretty Ann and Joe, the hostler, chance to meet. Strong is Joe, and simple, and Ann is shy and sweet. They love and marry. And live happy ever after? A baby comes to bless the union. Then—it might be the angels were jealous of such mortal happiness; it might be the devil, seeing the stage so set, entered to play the leading role. The tempter comes to the woman. He is a gentleman, suave, polished, a man of manners. Ann, knowing not the manners of men, hears and heeds and falls as angels fall from heaven—another Eve heeding the serpent's call, facing a morn of desired delight, and the twilight of despair. In a far-off country town, youth and strength gone, his soul seared by the sad sorrow of woman's sin, Joe reads in a newspaper how a once-famous actress, alone and in poverty, is dying. AWAY GOES ALL STOMACH MISERY

No Indigestion, Heartburn, Gas or Dyspepsia Five Minutes Later.

If you had some Diapepsin handy and would take a little now your stomach distress or indigestion would vanish in five minutes and you would feel fine.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, out-of-order stomach before you realize it.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach. Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drug store waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disturbance. adv.

GIVEN FOR FIRST TIME IN INDIANA

Fort Wayne Consistory Exemplifies Twenty-Ninth Grade.

NEARING THE CLOSE

For the first time in the history of a Scottish Rite body in the state of Indiana, Fort Wayne Consistory today exemplified in full ceremonial form the twenty-ninth grade of Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite—the Knight of St. Andrew, upon a class of candidates that numbered 146. The degree has heretofore both in this city and at Indianapolis, been communicated only, and much interest centered about its presentation upon an elaborate scale to the big class today.

The reunion of the Scottish Rite will came to a close this evening with the conferring of the thirty-second degree upon a class that is the largest ever received here with the single exception of the dedication class. Work was resumed at 9 o'clock this morning.

Grand Master Here.

The reunion banquet was held at the Scottish Rite cathedral at 6:30 o'clock last evening and was a very large gathering. Schlatter's orchestra played and Ronald Dawson presided as toastmaster.

The address to the class was delivered by W. S. Swintz, of South Bend, grand master of the Indiana Masonic grand lodge. The response for the class, given by Rev. Arthur J. Folsom, of Plymouth Congregational church, was declared by old members of the rite to have been one of the very finest and happiest efforts of the kind ever heard in this city. As Rev. Mr. Folsom resumed his seat the applause was so thunderous and so long continued that he was obliged to arise and bow his acknowledgments again and again.

New Class Organizes.

The new consistory class organized this morning by the election of Rev. A. J. Folsom as president, Dr. George Gillie as secretary and treasurer, and James H. Rose as historian. All the officers are from this city.

PICKS UP LONG-LOST WATCH.

Peru Man Found Valued Relic While Husking Corn.

Peru, Ind., Nov. 23.—While James Cover, of Allen township, was husking corn in James Clemens' field, near Macy, he found an open-faced gold watch that had been lost by Mr. Clemens eleven years ago. The watch was highly prized by Mr. Clemens, because it had been given him by the pupils of the Christian church Sunday school, he having been the musician for the school for a number of years. It was the first watch that Mr. Clemens ever owned. When found yesterday the case was as bright as it was the day it was bought, but the steel parts of the timepiece were so rusted that they are useless. Mr. Clemens will have new works put into the case.

WILL REPEAT IT TONIGHT.

Knights of Columbus Minstrels Give Fine Performance.

The minstrel performance by members of Fort Wayne council, Knights of Columbus, given last evening at the lodge rooms, drew an immense audience and scored a tremendous hit. Among the fun-makers were Maurice Niezer, Tom Hayes, George Ryan, M. Greven, M. Freiburger, A. Schoenbein, Amos Jockel, Carl Burlage and L. W. Reed, while Thomas Shovlin, Henry Roeger, George Sosenheimer, Thomas Woulfe, Clem Weber, M. F. Noll, Charles Blee and Julian Alter. The performance will be repeated this evening.

CITY BREVITIES.

State Bank Examiner W. C. Thomas is preparing to remove from Logansport to this city.

An auto owned by Dr. McKeeman and driven by a colored chauffeur, got beyond the driver's control on East Berry street yesterday afternoon and headed across the sidewalk for the display window in the Peoples' drug store. It was deflected in its course sufficiently to miss the plate glass and spend its force against an iron post in the doorway. Nobody was injured.

A slight blaze in the Paul E. Wolf mattress factory yesterday afternoon occasioned a loss of $25.

Congressman Cyrus Cline is among the visitors in the city attending the Scottish Rite reunion.

We sell all the good lines of overalls. Carters, Carhartts, Finks, and Cones Bros. Our price 75c. In the other stores they cost you $1.

LYRIC THEATER

The Lyric is showing a Rex today and night, entitled "The Price." It's a story as old as the Garden of Eden and as new as the latest divorce suit; a page of human history from Adam to eternity; a tale of temptation, transgression, travail and tears. Pretty Ann and Joe, the hostler, chance to meet. Strong is Joe, and simple, and Ann is shy and sweet. They love and marry. And live happy ever after? A baby comes to bless the union. Then—it might be the angels were jealous of such mortal happiness; it might be the devil, seeing the stage so set, entered to play the leading role. The tempter comes to the woman. He is a gentleman, suave, polished, a man of manners. Ann, knowing not the manners of men, hears and heeds and falls as angels fall from heaven—another Eve heeding the serpent's call, facing a morn of desired delight, and the twilight of despair. In a far-off country town, youth and strength gone, his soul seared by the sad sorrow of woman's sin, Joe reads in a newspaper how a once-famous actress, alone and in poverty, is dying. He comes to her and tells her that he forgives her, tells her he loves her for what might have been, for the soul that he would meet again in the Far Away. On the stone over her grave Joe wrote one word—the honored name of "Wife."
